Pre-Conference Event

Legal Career Fair 2004

Legalstaff.com has invited some of Oregon's top leaders and professionals to assist OSB members looking to enhance their careers. Learn how to make a successful lateral move, understand and benefit from contract work, market yourself beyond your résumé and more! The Career Fair is free to anyone who has pre-registered for the OSB Annual Meeting. Those not attending the Annual Meeting can find Career Fair fee and registration information on the Career Fair link at www.oregonstatebar.org. Be sure to mark your calendars for this special event on the eve of the Annual Meeting.

OSB Lounge & Exhibitor Tradeshow

Open: Thursday 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Friday 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

These two popular Annual Meeting events are back this year and full of resources, fun and networking opportunities. Take a break in the OSB Lounge, complete with an Internet café for computer connections, board games for challenging fellow bar members and a chair masseuse for that massage you've been meaning to get. Meet tradeshow exhibitors at booths surrounding the OSB Lounge.

This year's exhibitors include:

- Allen Trust Company
- Amicus Data
- financialforensics
- FOR 1031
- IKON
- Information Services Associates
- LexisNexis
- Moore Henderson Allen & Thomas, Inc.
- Multnomah Bar Association
- Naegeli Reporting Corporation
- Office of the Legislative Counsel
- OPENonline
- Oregon State Bar Referral & Information Services
- Oregon State Bar Store & Resource Booth
- Synergy Financial/Guardian
- Wells Fargo
- West

Dear OSB Members,

I'd like to invite you to join us in October at the 2004 OSB Annual Meeting. We will meet in Portland this year – the first time in more than ten years!

Also making a return this year are the exhibitor tradeshow and an old favorite: the OSB Tent Show and Dinner.

The Annual Meeting kicks off on Thursday, October 14 with section CLE programs and the opening of the tradeshow. We'll continue on Friday, October 15 with a full day of CLEs that focus on two tracks of education covering ethics, elimination of bias, technology, marketing and more. The Annual Meeting concludes on Saturday, October 16 with the House of Delegates Meeting and the Oregon New Lawyers Division's SuperSaturday CLE event.

Highlights of this year's meeting include:

- Pre-conference Career Fair on Wednesday, October 13
- OSB President's Annual Awards Dinner and Dance
- Second Annual Networking Lunch
- Exhibitor Tradeshow and OSB Lounge
- OSB Tent Show and Dinner – a variety show and dinner reminiscent of the OSB Tent Shows of the '50s, '60s and '70s.

Please join me in taking some time to connect with fellow bar members and receive some worthwhile education at the same time. We have made every effort to consider your busy schedules and have provided many flexible ways to participate in the meeting. So, read on and I'll see you in Portland!

Sincerely,

William G. Carter
President, Oregon State Bar

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Thursday, October 14

OSB Section CLE Programs plus "Best of the Best" Video Replays

The OSB thanks the following sections who are donating their time and expertise to provide these outstanding programs.

10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Legal Developments in Electronic Communications

The Business Law Section Awards Lunch and Annual Business Meeting will follow this session.

2 MCLE credits

Sponsor: Business Law Section

PART 1: Boundless Marketing Potential or Not? Developments in Telephone, Facsimile, Mail and E-mail Communications

This session covers the latest legal developments in Do Not Call Registries, limits and restrictions on facsimiles, anti-spam legislation and the use of online records for mail communications.

PART 2: I Created It, It's Mine! Intellectual Property and Noncompetition Issues Facing Business

This session covers the creation and ownership of intellectual property, nonsolicitation agreements and trademarks.

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Health Information Privacy Update

1.5 MCLE credits

Sponsor: Health Law Section

A review of key HIPAA concepts that impact many Oregon lawyers such as accessing medical records by subpoena, and release of protected health information to personal representatives, law enforcement and others under Oregon's workers compensation system. Also, where we stand today with respect to state confidentiality laws in light of federal HIPAA requirements, including a summary of proposed legislation for the 2005 Session to clarify state confidentiality laws to conform or comply with HIPAA, and a preview of HIPAA Security rules, which become effective May 2005. The Health Law section annual business meeting will be held prior to this session at 10:30 a.m.

Speakers: Gwen M. Dayton, Oregon Association of Hospitals and Health Systems, Lake Oswego; Kelly T. Hagan, Schwabe Williamson & Wyatt PC, Portland; Steven T. Conklin, Oregon Health & Science University, Portland

1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Consumer Law and Punitive Damages – The Recovery and the Keeping

1 MCLE credit

Sponsor: Consumer Law Section

Punitive damages can make a small-damage consumer case attractive when it might otherwise be economically unfeasible. In this session, trial and appellate experts will cover the basics of litigating punitive damages cases and keeping your jury award on appeal. Topics covered include case selection, special considerations in consumer cases, presenting punitive damages cases to juries, anticipating appeal of the jury award, punitive damages and settlement, and constitutional considerations in appellate review.

Speakers: Hope A. Del Carlo, Law Office of Phil Goldsmith, Portland; Maureen Leonard, Attorney at Law, Portland; Mark E. Griffin, Griffin & McCandlish, Portland

1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Spotting and Resolving Environmental Issues in Real Property Transactions; and an Update on the Hatchery vs. Wild Fish Controversy

2 MCLE credits

Sponsor: Environmental and Natural Resources Section

The first hour of the program spotlights environmental issues that frequently arise in the purchase, sale and development of real property. Aimed at the general practitioner, this session will develop these issues in role-playing interactions between the lawyer, the client, lenders and regulators. The second hour will feature a point/counterpoint discussion of the national, and distinctly Oregon, controversy over the ESA implications of listing hatchery salmon as endangered salmon stocks.

Co-sponsorship of this reception by the American Bar Association and the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation is underwritten by Harrang Long Gary Rudnick P.C.

Come and celebrate the achievements of our member volunteers. This is our chance to thank our heroes – those members who contribute to the legal profession by serving fellow bar members, or by providing pro bono legal services to those in need. Jim Willis, Director of the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs, will give special recognition to those who have provided pro bono legal services through the Oregon State Bar's Military Assistance Panel. Marilyn J. Harbur, ABA OSB Delegate and ABF Oregon co-chair, will also briefly address attendees and make ABA and ABF introductions.

President's Annual Awards Dinner and Dance

6:00 p.m.

Join OSB President William G. Carter as he honors this year's award recipients at the President's Annual Awards Dinner. The annual awards include the Award of Merit and three President's Awards: the Membership Service Award, the Public Service Award, and the Affirmative Action Award. Enjoy seasonal northwest cuisine followed by music and dancing with the all-lawyer band, The Miller Brothers Genuine Blues Band.

Best of the Best Video Replays

Available Thursday and Friday

For even more MCLE credits, we've planned two days of video replays for you to choose from. This bonus feature is open to all Annual Meeting registrants and is included in your registration fee. View the "best of the best" video replays, including child abuse reporting.

Long-time OSB members and practicing attorneys Dave Miller and Fred Miller are also leaders of the five piece The Miller Brothers Genuine Blues Band. Dave plays lead guitar and sings, and Fred is the featured instrumentalist on saxophone. Other members include Dave Miller, Jr. on rhythm guitar, Mike Oxborrow on bass guitar and Dave Smith on drums.

Friday, October 15

3 Elimination of Bias credits

Sponsor: Diversity Section

Part 1: Perspectives on Brown v. Board of Education

Join legal scholars from three of Oregon's most prestigious institutions as they explore and discuss what the United States

2004 Oregon State Bar Annual Meeting

Supreme Court's decision in the Grutter v. Bollinger case, which involved the University of Michigan Law School's admissions policy, means for the legacy of Brown v. Board of Education. Particular focus will be given to the tension between having affirmative action as a remedial measure as opposed to striving toward the goal of diversity.

Speakers: Robin Morris Collin, Professor of Law, Willamette University College of Law, Salem; Colin Diver, Reed College President, and Charles A. Heimbold, Jr., Professor of Law and Economics Emeritus, University of Pennsylvania; Gregory Vincent, Vice Provost For Institutional Equity And Diversity, University of Oregon and former Professor of Law at the Louisiana State University College of Law

Part 2: Diversity in Corporate America 50 Years After Brown v. Board of Education

This second session focuses on diversity in corporate America. This panel will consist of representatives from corporations who were amicus curiae in support of the University of Michigan position. Among the topics, the panelists will discuss what diversity is and the value they see in it for the corporate world. Nike, Microsoft and Kaiser Permanente are among the companies participating in the panel.

Speakers: Jim Carter, Nike General Counsel, Beaverton; Ron Knox, Vice President, Diversity, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., Oakland, CA

Improve your practice with programs designed to teach you about the latest in law and the greatest in marketing and new technology.
