Intellectual Property Updates and Changes from 2014

Friday, Feb. 13, 9 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Oregon State Bar Center, Tigard

4.25 general CLE credits

Take a look at the past year's activity in intellectual property with a review of copyright, trademark and patent law. Case law, legislation and the Copyright Office updates will be covered during the copyright review. The trademark review examines federal cases, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board proceedings, and filing and prosecution trends. The patent review will include legislation, 2014 Supreme Court patent decisions, federal circuit court developments and issues to watch in 2015. Mike Pelligrino, Pelligrino & Assoc., a leading expert in the embedded software and intellectual property valuation industry, will be the special guest presenter during lunch. Cosponsored by the Intellectual Property Section.

Legal Publications

Pre-order 2014 Oregon Uniform Jury Instructions

Make sure you won't be using obsolete instructions.

The Uniform Civil Jury Instructions Committee has been working on a comprehensive review of all jury instructions last reviewed in 2005 to ensure accuracy. Included in the 2014 supplement will be revised instructions on comparative negligence, causation, apportionment of damages, fraud and the Employer Liability Law. The committee has made revisions to, or updated the comments of, 53 instructions in these and other categories. In addition, the committee has reviewed 95 instructions in various categories and determined that they are still accurate.

The Uniform Criminal Jury Instructions Committee is finishing up its 2014 supplement. One of this year's highlights is a section in the Users' Guide on preservation of instructional error for appellate review. The supplement also contains two new enhancement factor instructions and, as usual, a number of amended instructions, including aggravated harassment, sexual abuse in the second degree and failure to perform the duties of a driver.
