Since my election in 2006, I have been an educator at too many continuing legal education forums to list here. Suffice it to say, I have stayed very active in that regard.

8) Prior to your becoming a judge, what was the general character of your legal practice? Where appropriate indicate any legal areas in which you concentrated.

Prior to becoming a judge, I was a senior prosecutor with the Lane County District Attorney's Office assigned to the Major Crimes Division focusing on the prosecution of major violent felonies and child abuse cases. I was with the D.A.'s office from 1996 until I was sworn in as a judge in January, 2007.

9) List your judicial experience, including as a pro tem, and/or service on an administrative tribunal, or justice, municipal, tax, circuit, or appellate court.

I have been a Lane County Circuit Court Judge since January, 2007. Prior to being appointed as our Presiding Judge in January, 2018, I served as the court's Chief Criminal Judge for over 8 years.

10) Describe the general character of your judicial work over the past five years. Indicate the nature of the cases over which you preside, any specialty courts or court programs, and any legal areas in which you concentrate.

See answer to 9) above. Along with those special assignments, I have also been a general jurisdiction trial judge since my original election in January 2007, regularly handling all manner of cases that come to our court including domestic relations, traffics, civil cases, small claims, FEDs, as well as criminal cases.

11) Describe any judicial experience in appellate courts not included above.

None

12) Describe any experience serving as an arbitrator or mediator.

None

13) List any bar association memberships. Where appropriate, list officer positions, committee assignments or other notable work.

Oregon State Bar Association, member since 1994

Lane County Bar Association, member since 1994

Board Member, Lane County Bar Association 2002-2004

New Lawyer Committee Chair, LCBA, 1995

Judicial Administration Committee, OSB, 2005 to 2006

Oregon Women Lawyers Member

14) Describe any bar association or judicial department committees, task forces, or special projects in which you have been involved.

Current member, and past chair, Oregon Commission on Judicial Fitness and Disability (2013 to present)

Current member Oregon Prison Forecast Advisory Committee

Current member Oregon Public Safety Task Force

Lane County Public Safety Coordinating Council Budget Committee member/chair (2009 to 2017)

Current member Lane County Public Safety Coordinating Council

15) Have you ever been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of any federal, state, county or municipal law, regulation or ordinance? If so, please give details. Do not include parking offenses or traffic violations for which a fine of less than $500 was imposed.

No

16) Have you ever been the subject of a formal disciplinary proceeding as an attorney or judge? If so, please give the particulars and the result. Include formal proceedings only.

No

17) What attracted you to a judicial career?

Before becoming a judge, I had spent my legal career, as well as a great portion of my private life, working to improve the quality of life in my community, with an emphasis on the importance of providing for the needs of children and families. I had seen that lives could be dramatically affected by our legal system. As a judge, I knew I could continue to have a positive effect on the quality of life in my community.

18) Briefly describe your philosophy of the judicial role, the qualities that are most important for the role, and the greatest challenges to the role.

A judge must have a strong work ethic, be someone who can put in the necessary hours to keep cases flowing steadily through a system that threatens to clog.

A judge must be willing to continually educate herself in order to improve the performance of her judicial duties with regard to every type of case that comes before her.

A judge must at all times promote public trust and confidence in the courts and the justice system.

A judge must have the patience to listen to each dispute, argument and fact before rendering a judgment.

A judge must have the courage to properly exercise judicial power with impartiality, honesty, fairness and discretion.

A judge must have the courage to do the right thing, even if it might be the hard thing.

19) Briefly describe a case, or a legal issue on which you worked, of which you are particularly proud, or which is reflective of your legal ability, work ethic, judicial philosophy, or temperament.

Singling out a particular case isn't something that I think is entirely appropriate in the context of this question.

Statewide, my work as a member of the Oregon Commission on Judicial Fitness and Disability for the past 5 years has been challenging and reflective of my work ethic and professional philosophy.

Locally, I am particularly proud of my work on the PSCC Budget Committee, where committee members work in a collaborative setting to find the best way to fund the most impactful programs for our criminal justice system with too few funds.

20) Briefly describe an issue, related to Oregon's justice system, that is of particular interest or concern to you, or that you have interest in working toward improving.

Overwhelming caseloads, overtaxed dockets, and underfunded courts.

21) Briefly describe a legal figure (personal, fictional or historical), whom you admire and why.

Atticus Finch, To Kill a Mockingbird. This character exemplifies the professionalism that should be aspired to by all lawyers and judges.

22) State any other information that you regard as pertinent to your candidacy.

None.
