

This form is for members admitted to the Oregon State Bar as law teacher under Rule for Admission (RFA) 11.05. That rule provides that teacher admission remains in effect so long as you remain employed by a qualifying law school. This form should be completed on an annual basis to ensure the bar's membership records are up to date.

This form can be submitted to the bar via e-mail, fax or mail. If you would like to submit it via e-mail, please send the completed form to Brandi Norris – bnorris@osbar.org.

Member Name: _____

OSB Bar #: _____

1. Are you still employed by the law school that you worked for at the time of your admission?
 Yes No

If so, you need not answer the remaining questions.

2. If you are not still employed by the same law school, on what date did that employment end?

3. Under RFA 11.05, new employment with a qualifying law school within six months of the termination of the previous employment results in reinstatement to house counsel membership. If you are not still employed by the same law school that you worked for at the time of your admission, are you now employed with a different, qualifying law school? Yes No

When did that employment start?

4. If you are now employed with a different law school, have you submitted verification of that employment as required by RFA 11.05? Yes No

If not, please do so immediately.

Please contact Jennifer Brand, (503) 431-6343, with any questions.
