Represent your clients with confidence with this complete Family Law, 2013 Revision! Family Law is the essential book for Oregon lawyers who deal with any aspect of family law practice. This three-volume revision includes 2012 legislation and covers the basics—interspersed with practice tips, caveats, and queries—on spousal support, child support, child custody and parenting time, property division, family law procedures, and much more.

Highlights:

- New sections addressing marital debts and the court's authority to divide them.
- New income rule analysis used in determining child support.
- New section on establishing paternity in cases of artificial insemination.
- New section addressing the need for findings and proof in spousal support cases.
- New legislation authorizing the court to include protection of family pets and service animals in FAPA order.
- Analysis of the 2011 legislation amending the statute governing property distribution.
- Discussions of various provisions of the 2009 Recession Response Program that affect modifications to child support.
- Preliminary analysis of provisions of the 2010 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Also contains over 100 useful forms including:

- Marital Settlement Agreement
- Affidavit Regarding Counseling
- General Judgment of Adoption (Stepparent)
- Petition for Adoption
- Ex Parte Order of Assistance
- Petition for Expedited Enforcement of Child Custody Determination
- Application for Change of Name
- Mediation and Fee Agreement
- Request for Mediation by One Parent and Order
- Parenting Plan
