Oregon Uniform Jury Instructions

Civil
2016 Supplement

Criminal
2016 Supplement

With Oregon Uniform Jury Instructions you will always be prepared for trial with up-to date and customizable jury instructions, save time by using instructions already drafted by the experts, and represent your clients with confidence using the comments to the instructions.

Oregon Uniform Civil Jury Instructions

- 12 Revised Instructions
- 1 Withdrawn Instruction

The Uniform Civil Jury Instructions Committee focused on reviewing and updating landlord-tenant jury instructions that were last reviewed and published in 2005. Included in this 2016 supplement are 12 revised instructions that have been reviewed and updated to reflect the current statutory language and to include any new case law affecting these instructions. The committee also withdrew one instruction addressing the right to terminate a rental agreement as the contents are sufficiently addressed in other instructions.

Oregon Uniform Criminal Jury Instructions

- 21 Revised Instructions
- 6 Withdrawn Instructions
- 1 Update to Users Guide

The Uniform Criminal Jury Instructions Committee updated many instructions, including the fourth-degree assault instructions, the invasion-of-privacy instructions, and the marijuana instructions. The committee separated the definitions of physical injury and serious physical injury into two distinct instructions and updated the comments to each. Addressing this year's Oregon Supreme Court decision in State v. Simonov, the committee also added a section to the Users' Guide about the application of culpable mental states to particular elements of a crime.
