(f) The activity must have no attendance restrictions based on race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, geographic location, age, handicap or disability, marital, parental or military status or other classification protected by law, except as may be permitted upon application from a provider or member, where attendance is restricted due to applicable state or federal law.

5.2 Other CLE Activities.

(a) Teaching Activities.

(1) Teaching activities may be accredited at a ratio of four credit hours for each sixty minutes of actual instruction if the presentation includes preparation of written materials, or at a ratio of two credit hours for each sixty minutes of actual instruction if the presentation does not include written materials. No more than 20 hours of teaching credit may be claimed in a three-year reporting period and no more than 10 hours may be claimed in a shorter reporting period.

(b) In order to be accredited as an activity pertaining to access to justice for purposes of Rule 3.2(c), an activity shall be directly related to the practice of law and designed to educate attorneys to identify and eliminate from the legal profession and from the practice of law barriers to access to justice arising from biases against persons because of race, gender, economic status, creed, color, religion, national origin, disability, age or sexual orientation.

(c) Portions of activities may be accredited for purposes of satisfying the ethics and access to justice requirements of Rule 3.2, if the applicable content of the activity is clearly defined.

5.400 Business Development and Marketing Activities. Activities devoted to enhancing profits or generating revenue through advertising and solicitation of legal business, whether denominated business development, client development, practice development, marketing or otherwise, shall not be accredited. Activities dealing with ethical issues relating to advertising and solicitation under applicable disciplinary rules may be accredited if it appears to the Administrator that the emphasis is on legal ethics rather than on business development or marketing.

5.500 Access to Justice. A program shall not be ineligible for accreditation as an access to justice activity solely because it is limited to a discussion of substantive law, provided the substantive law relates to access to justice issues involving race, gender, economic status, creed, color, religion, national origin, disability, age, or sexual orientation.

5.600 Independent Study. Members may earn credit through independent screening or viewing of audio-or video-tapes of programs originally presented to live group audiences, or through online programs designed for presentation to a wide audience. A lawyer who is licensed in a jurisdiction that allows credit for reading and successfully completing an examination about specific material may use such credits to meet the Oregon requirement. No credit will be allowed for independent reading of material selected by a member except as part of an organized and accredited group program.

(e) When it is determined that the noncompliance has been cured, the MCLE Administrator shall notify the affected active member that he or she has complied with the MCLE requirement for the applicable reporting period.

7.6 Suspension. If the noncompliance is not cured within the deadline specified in Rule 7.5, the MCLE Administrator shall recommend to the Supreme Court that the affected active member be suspended from membership in the bar.

8.1 Review.

(a) Decisions of the MCLE Administrator. A decision, other than a suspension recommended pursuant to Rule 7.6, affecting any active member or sponsor is final unless a request for review is filed with the MCLE Administrator within 21 days after notice of the decision is mailed. The request for review may be by letter and requires no special form, but it shall state the decision to be reviewed and give the reasons for review. The matter shall be reviewed by the BOG or, if one has been appointed, the MCLE Committee, at its next regular meeting. An active member or sponsor shall have the right, upon request, to be heard, and any such hearing request shall be made in the initial letter. The hearing shall be informal. On review, the BOG or the MCLE Committee shall have authority to take whatever action consistent with these rules is deemed proper. The MCLE Administrator shall notify the member or sponsor in writing of the decision on review and the reasons therefor.

(b) Decisions of the MCLE Committee. If a decision of the MCLE Administrator is initially reviewed by the MCLE Committee, the decision of the MCLE Committee may be reviewed by the BOG on written request of the affected active member or sponsor made within 21 days of the issuance of the MCLE Committee's decision. (1) A copy of the MCLE Administrator's recommendation to the Supreme Court that a member be suspended from membership in the bar shall be sent by certified mail to the member. The petition shall set forth a concise statement of each reason asserted for review of the MCLE Administrator's recommendation and may be accompanied by one or more supporting affidavits.

(2) Within 14 days after a petition for review is filed by a member recommended for suspension, the MCLE Administrator shall file with the State Court Administrator a response and may submit one or more supporting affidavits. Further submissions by the parties shall not be allowed unless the court so requests.

(3) The court may review the MCLE Administrator's recommendation, petition for review and response without further briefing or oral argument. The court may, however, request either further briefing or oral argument, or both. Thereafter, the court shall enter its order. If the court approves the recommendation of the MCLE Administrator, an effective date for the member's suspension shall be stated therein.

8.2 Reinstatement. An active member suspended for noncompliance with the MCLE requirement shall be reinstated only upon completion of the MCLE requirement, submission of a completed compliance report to the bar, payment of the late filing and reinstatement fees, and compliance with the applicable provisions of the Rules of Procedure.

(b) A hearing before the MCLE Committee may be recorded at the request of the active member or sponsor or the MCLE Committee. In such event, the party requesting that the matter be recorded shall bear the expense of such recording. The request shall state the reason for the waiver or exemption and shall describe a continuing legal education plan tailored to the particular circumstances of the requestor.
