

OSB CLE SEMINARS—SECTION SERVICES

COSPONSORED (Organized in conjunction with OSB CLE Seminars; program must be a minimum of three CLE credit hours or a series of three one-hour credit programs). Please review the Cosponsorship Planning Guidelines for specific program details.

Section develops the program content and OSB CLE Seminars delivers as an in-person event, streaming (live or replay), and on-demand product. Section services include:

- Online registration for in-person and streaming events
- Viewer and speaker tech support
- Speaker management, including remote speaker training and course materials follow up
- Marketing
- Applying for MCLE credit and reporting attendance (does not include self-study seminars on CD and MP3 downloads)
- Recording the programs for on-demand access through the OSB CLE Seminars online catalog
- Special rates for sections and the Oregon New Lawyers Division (ONLD)
- Delivery formats:
 - In person
 - Live streaming (webcast)
 - Hybrid (In person and live streaming)
 - On demand (available through the OSB CLE catalog; 60-day access)
 - MP3 downloads (available from the OSB CLE catalog)

NONCOSPONSORED

Sections are responsible for content development, speaker management, arranging for an online delivery platform, applying for MCLE credit, paying the MCLE sponsor fee, and reporting attendance. PLEASE NOTE: If a section does not report attendance, attendees must self-report. Attendees cannot self-report until a seminar is approved by OSB MCLE for credit.
