Join us at this public forum for students, parents, and the community that will address bullying among students, with a focus on how bullying impacts sexual minorities and youth with disabilities.

This program will:

- Promote tolerance and inclusion
- Provide information on the rights and avenues for recourse for students who are victims of bullying
- Present peer role models who have come forward to share their stories
- Introduce students to the legal profession

Program Includes:

- Needs and Rights of Youth Who Have Experienced Bullying
 - Joyce Liljeholm—Oregon Safe Schools and Communities Coalition
- Resources for GLBT Youth Who Have Experienced Bullying
 - Favor Ellis—Sexual & Gender Minority Youth Resource Center
- Panel: First-Hand Accounts of Bullying Experiences
 - Family and Community Together (FACT)
 - Mercedes White Calf
 - Khalil Edwards—Parents, Families & Friends of Lesbians & Gays
- Oregon's Anti-Bullying Statute
 - Bob Joondeph—Disability Rights Oregon
- U.S. Department of Justice Anti-Bullying Initiatives
 - Dwight Holton—United States Attorney for the District of Oregon
