

Consumer Rights in Tough Times: Foreclosures, Garnishment, Debt Collection, Credit, & Consumer Protection

Saturday, May 8th from 1:00 – 4:30pm

Saints Peter & Paul Episcopal Church
8147 Southeast Pine Street
Portland, Oregon 97215
At SE 82nd & Ash (Between Burnside & Stark)
Tri-Met Line 72

Cost: Free

Come learn about your legal rights as a consumer during tough economic times. Topics will include:

- Home loan modification options and what to do if you're facing foreclosure
- Rights of tenants in rental properties facing foreclosure
- How to protect your public assistance check (for example, unemployment or SSI) from garnishment
- Debt collection practices: what's legal and what's not?
- Consumer scams: what to watch for
- Credit reporting issues