Meet your presenter: Don Vilfer,
VAND Group LLC, Sacramento, CA

Don Vilfer specializes in general and complex investigative matters and has extensive experience testifying in state and federal courts, including as an expert witness. He was Senior Director of Litigation Support and Investigative Services for a large Sacramento accounting firm. Prior to that position Don was assigned to the FBI's Washington, DC field office and worked on major cases involving bank fraud and public corruption. He also was a Supervisory Special Agent at FBI headquarters and served as the Special Agent in charge of the White Collar Crime and Computer Crime Unit in Sacramento, leading investigations of federal white collar crime violations and overseeing the FBI's participation in the Sacramento High-Tech Task Force.

Don is a graduate of the Ohio State University College of Law and a member of the Ohio State Bar Association.

Everyone leaves digital evidence as they go about their lives. These digital trails are often overlooked as sources of evidence for investigations and litigation. Courts are catching up to the existence of digital evidence and are beginning to require that it be considered or made part of a case. Learn key legal and practical aspects of obtaining and incorporating digital evidence into your cases. Review recent legal developments and hear about illustrative issues ranging from theft of trade secrets to workplace misconduct.
