This year's Litigation Institute features Paul Unger and two leading-edge technology presentations for litigators: "A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words: Making Your Case to the Jury with Legal Technology" and "iPad for Litigators." Master an iPad for crucial litigation tasks, such as courtroom presentation and deposition preparation, and see how the proper use of PowerPoint can engage a jury more effectively. A judges' panel will take a look at proportionality in discovery, and you'll gain jury selection tips and an understanding of the changing demographics of Oregon's jury pool. And for a look at some fascinating legal history, this year's institute offers a special guest appearance by Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, "The Great Dissenter."

The 20th Annual Owen M. Panner Professionalism Award will be presented to Joe B. Richards, Lane County Legal Aid and Advocacy Center, Eugene.
