Plot a course to strengthen your practice with the latest information on juvenile law. Learn about LGBTQ youth in foster care, the role of the Oregon Youth Authority, and navigating parental alienation in juvenile dependency cases. A panel discussion will explore how to represent LGBTQ children and client confidentiality issues regarding sexual orientation and/or gender. Examine how the Oregon Youth Authority is building developmentally appropriate services. Find out how to avoid delays with reconciliation or alternative permanency in juvenile dependency cases. Review 2017 juvenile law appellate decisions as well as questions of law currently in trial and appellate court litigation.

Register by 2/19/18 and save $20.
