Join members of the Intellectual Property Section for a review of 2015 changes and developments in the “trinity” of intellectual property law – patents, trademarks, and copyrights. Review patent legislation, post-grant proceedings in the Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. Supreme Court patent decisions, and issues to watch in 2016. During the trademark law review, federal cases, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board proceedings, and filing and prosecution trends will be examined. Take a look at 2015 decisions in copyright case law, U.S. Copyright Office developments, and pending cases and legislative proposals. The lunch presentation, “Dancing in a Field of Broken Glass: Observations from 30 Years of IP Practice,” includes a review of major intellectual property theories over the last 25 years and future challenges for IP practitioners.
