

Cannabis and Psychedelics Law Section

OSB

For those looking to stay up to date in the dynamic areas of cannabis and hemp law, learn more about the failures of cannabis legalization, or hear about the emerging world of psilocybin and psychedelics law, the OSB Cannabis and Psychedelics Law Section's Fifth Annual Northwest Cannabis and Psychedelics Law Conference will be full of comprehensive presentations and updates covering a broad array of topics.

Friday's program will include a federal and state hemp update; an update on the Oregon's Psilocybin Services Act; a review of secured transactions, how best to draft for them, and what happens when a licensed business defaults; and a discussion of psilocybin land use issues.

Saturday's program will include a legislative update exploring the 2023 Oregon legislative session, a discussion of the failures of legalization, and an analysis of rescheduling of marijuana.

Cannabis and Psychedelics Section Annual Conference | Sept. 28-30, 2023 | Tolovana Inn

3:15 p.m. Local Land Use and Real Estate Considerations for Licensed Psilocybin Business Applicants
(1 general credit)

In the wake of psilocybin license opt-outs and adopted local psilocybin ordinances, our presentation will cover salient local jurisdictional considerations for applicants seeking locations for their psilocybin product manufacturer, service center, or testing laboratory licenses. Topics covered will include: (1) various approaches local governments take when permitting psilocybin businesses; (2) common time place manner restrictions (TPMs) related to psilocybin businesses; (3) how TPMs may differ from those applied in the cannabis space; (4) real estate considerations psilocybin businesses should weigh before leasing or purchasing property; and (5) specific land use hurdles we've encountered while assisting clients with psilocybin licensing.
