

Continuing Legal Education 2015

35th Annual Northwest Securities Institute

Friday, April 17, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.,
Saturday, April 18, 9 a.m.-noon
Embassy Suites Portland – Downtown
8.25 general and 1.25 ethics credits

This year's Northwest Securities Institute offers both familiar faces and new topics. Friday starts with a trio of regulatory updates from state and provincial agencies and the Securities and Exchange Commission. Following the enforcement update is a panel on corporate internal investigations. The afternoon leads off with discussion about U.S. Supreme Court decisions and the future of private securities litigation. FINRA's risk-based exam program will be explored, and the afternoon ends with a review of the Madoff bankruptcy litigation and the Securities Investor Protection Act. Saturday morning's session looks at social purpose and benefit corporations, shareholder inspection demands, and forum selection.

Cosponsored by the OSB Securities Regulation Section, the Washington State Bar Association Business Law Section, and in association with WSBA-CLE and the Northwest State-Federal-Provincial Securities Conference.

No video replay.

28th Annual Northwest Bankruptcy Institute

Friday, May 1, 8:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m.,
Saturday, May 2, 9 a.m.-noon
Portland Marriott Downtown Waterfront
9.25 general and 1.25 ethics credits

The 2015 Northwest Bankruptcy Institute brings a wide range of timely, practical topics. Four plenary sessions look at the state of bankruptcy court jurisdiction, equitable powers, the intersection between criminal law and bankruptcy and unsecured consumer debt. Four breakout sessions focus on post-confirmation jurisdiction, retirement accounts and bankruptcy, executory contracts and debt collection rulemaking. During the judges' panel, hear two new and two seasoned bankruptcy court judges discuss life on the bench. Discover new ways to work with clients ethically and efficiently. The lunch presentation, "Beyond the Ant and the Grasshopper," will explore bankruptcy myths and fairy tales.

Cosponsored by the Oregon OSB Debtor-Creditor Section and the Washington State Bar Association Creditor Debtor Rights Section.

No video replay.

Legal Ethics Best Practices

Friday, May 8, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Oregon State Bar Center, Tigard

6 ethics and .5 general or practical skills credits

Being a practicing lawyer and running your own law office is complicated, to say the least. Gain an understanding of legal ethics best practices and obtain practical advice for handling law office responsibilities.

From where to go for ethics advice to duties in the attorney-client relationship, this seminar provides guidance about a number of key issues. Speakers will address responsibilities after withdrawal, handling conflicts and conducting yourself with professionalism. This seminar is an ideal opportunity to ask questions and get answers from the bar's ethics experts.

Legal Publications

Coming Soon: Oregon Real Estate Deskbook

The editorial board for the upcoming Oregon Real Estate Deskbook has reorganized the five current real estate series books, combining chapters that covered the same topics and planning the addition of new chapters to touch on topics not addressed before. The editorial board also determined that four chapters from Foreclosing Security Interests more logically fit within a comprehensive Oregon Real Estate Deskbook. This five-volume book will be available in summer 2015; you will be able to purchase either the complete set or individual volumes. Watch for information on preordering your copy of this publication to take advantage of the early discount.

BarBooks Staff Accounts

It is important to maintain control of your personal and confidential information with the bar. With the potential for staff turnover in mind, staff accounts for BarBooks are offered, allowing law office support staff the same benefits of Barbooks that bar members have — but without access to the lawyer's personal information. Email legalpubs@osbar.org to request an order form. Staff accounts are available for a $50 annual fee.
