List of candidate's professional and community activities, professional history and reason for running for this position.

I'm a trademark & copyright attorney at Nike, my day job is to protect one of Nike's most valuable assets – its brands and logos. I'm creative in my strategy to clear obstacles for product/marketing teams to support business needs, I'm thoughtful and practical in enforcements, and I tailor my legal advice to the audience – if it's a fellow legal teammate I can go into more nuance, if it's a business teammate, I will keep things concise and easy to follow, and I make sure I support the teams in the way they want to be supported.

Besides my day job, I'm a Member of the Advisory Board of Diversity and Inclusion at the Oregon State Bar, providing comments to proposed policies and practices ensuring diversity, equity and inclusion are considered when such changes are implemented. I'm also a Member of the Event Committee for Oregon Asian and Pacific American Bar Association, hosting and organizing community events, educational events and networking events for AAPI legal practitioners in the Oregon State. At Nike, I serve on the leadership team for Nike's Employee Resource Group supporting AAPI employees: promoting events, raising awareness and hosting events for the community.

I want to run for this position because I'm committed to serve the legal community in Oregon, and wanted to bring more impact for what I do for Oregon State Bar beyond ACDI.
