FORMAL OPINION NO 2005-168
[REVISED 2018]

Lawyer-Owned Lawyer-Referral Service

Facts:

Lawyer wishes to open a for-profit lawyer-referral service available to the public. The service will be called “XYZ Lawyer-Referral Service.” Lawyer will be the sole owner of XYZ, which Lawyer plans to incorporate as an independent entity. Lawyer plans to advertise the service in the local media.

Lawyer intends to operate XYZ Lawyer-Referral Service out of Lawyer’s own law office. Lawyer and Lawyer’s legal secretary will screen incoming calls to determine the issues raised by the callers. Lawyer has established several “panels” by substantive area to handle the matters referred. On occasion, however, Lawyer may provide legal advice directly to callers as well as through XYZ Lawyer-Referral Service.

Questions:

1. May Lawyer have an ownership interest in a for-profit lawyer-referral service?
2. May Lawyer participate in the management of a for-profit lawyer-referral service?
3. May a lawyer-referral service provide legal advice to callers in the course of “screening” their inquiries?

Conclusions:

1. Yes, qualified.
2. Yes, qualified.
3. No.
Discussion:

1. Lawyer Ownership of For-Profit Lawyer-Referral Service.

2. Lawyer Management of For-Profit Lawyer-Referral Service.

   A lawyer-owner may provide general management and administration of a referral service. See OSB Formal Ethics Op No 2005-138 (legal aid service could provide general administration over associated referral service). This would include, for example, hiring and supervising operations management for the referral service. Similarly, the lawyer-owner may operate the referral service at the same physical premises as the lawyer’s law practice. See OSB Formal Ethics Op No 2005-2 (rev 2018) (lawyer may share office space with other businesses).

   Even in these circumstances, however, a lawyer-owner should take precautions to avoid participating in the actual “screening” of incoming inquiries in light of the risk that a caller (1) might impart confidential information to the lawyer and thereby create potential conflicts with the lawyer’s other clients, or (2) would form the reasonable belief that the lawyer had become the caller’s lawyer. See OEC 503(1)(a) (client means a person “who consults a lawyer with a view to obtaining professional legal services from the lawyer” for purposes of the lawyer-client privilege);

At the other end of the spectrum is In re Fellows, 9 DB Rptr 197, 199–200 (1995). The disciplined lawyer in Fellows operated a referral service called “Case Evaluation & Referral Service” that was not an independent business but was merely an assumed business name for the lawyer. Such conduct violates both Oregon RPC 7.1 and Oregon RPC 8.4(a)(3). In addition, the operation of a lawyer-owned referral service in this manner would constitute doing business with a client within the meaning of Oregon RPC 1.8(a).

3. Legal Advice by the Referral Service to Callers.

Because a referral service itself is not licensed to practice law, it may not provide legal advice to the public. ORS 9.160 (only those licensed to practice law may provide legal advice to third parties). Similarly, a lawyer may not assist a nonlawyer in the unlawful practice of law. Oregon RPC 5.5(a). Consequently, a lawyer may not assist a referral service in its delivering legal advice to the public either. OSB Formal Ethics Op No 2005-87.

Approved by Board of Governors, June 2018.
