Disseminating Information through the Media or through Speeches

Facts:

Lawyer is asked to do the following:

- (2) Answer legal questions sent in by readers of the newspaper;
- (3) Engage in the same types of conduct in a radio or television format; and

Question:

Is the above-described conduct consistent with rules of professional conduct on providing information on legal services?¹

Conclusion:

Yes, qualified.

Discussion:

There is no suggestion in the foregoing facts that Lawyer or others acting on Lawyer's behalf intend to make any false or misleading communications about Lawyer or Lawyer's services within the meaning of Oregon RPC 7.1.² See also Oregon RPC 8.4(a)(3) (prohibiting “conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation”).

There also is no suggestion that Lawyer is paying for the privilege of being permitted to engage in the foregoing activities or that Lawyer’s legal services are being improperly advertised. Cf. Oregon RPC 7.2(b).³

Approved by Board of Governors, February 2021.

² Oregon RPC 7.1 provides:

A lawyer shall not make a false or misleading communication about the lawyer or the lawyer’s services. A communication is false or misleading if it contains a material misrepresentation of fact or law, or omits a fact necessary to make the statement considered as a whole not materially misleading.

³ Oregon RPC 7.2(b) provides:

A lawyer shall not give anything of value to a person for recommending the lawyer’s services except that a lawyer may

- (1) pay the reasonable costs of advertisements or communications permitted by this Rule;
- (2) pay the usual charges of a legal service plan or a lawyer referral service;
- (3) pay for a law practice in accordance with Rule 1.17; and
- (4) give nominal gifts as an expression of appreciation that are neither intended nor reasonably expected to be a form of compensation for recommending a lawyer’s services.
