Mr. Mansfield presented the committee’s motion to approve the 2017 OSB budget. [Exhibit B] He noted that bar application numbers and bar passage rates have decreased, foreshadowing a possible revenue shortfall in the next couple of years, which could result in the need to tap into reserve funds, make budget cuts, or increase member fees.

OREGON STATE BAR
Board of Governors Agenda

Meeting Date: November 19, 2016
Memo Date: November 14, 2016
From: Rod Wegener, CFO
Re: 2017 OSB Budget Report

Action Recommended

Review and approval of the 2017 OSB Budget.

Background

The 2017 OSB Budget Report consisting of 11 pages of narrative and exhibits follows this memo. The report will be reviewed by the Budget & Finance Committee and will forward its recommendation to the board.

Highlights of the 2017 budget are listed on the first page of the report. The result is a net operating revenue of $390,604, which is an expected lower amount than the 2016 budget. Also as expected, there is no change in the active or inactive membership fee and no reserve funds are transferred to revenue for operational needs;
Purpose of This Report

- This version of the 2017 Budget Report includes staff preparation of all the line item program and department budgets.
- The report will first be reviewed by the Budget & Finance Committee prior to the board meeting of the same date.
- The Board of Governors will formally act on the approval of the final 2017 Budget.
- The five-year forecast incorporated herein includes no changes to program or services in 2018 and beyond except to move the Professional Adjudicator position to a full-year.

Highlights in This Report

- The Net Revenue for the 2017 General Operating budget is $390,604 - an improvement over the $262,353 Net Revenue reported in October.
- There is no change in the Active Member Fee of $557.00 nor the Inactive Member Fee of $125.00.
- All Revenue increases $310,000 from the 2016 budget, with 92% of that amount coming from Lawyer Referral percentage fees and Admissions.
- Expenditures increase by $775,000. Most is due to personnel related costs, although program/services costs also increase more than the annual normal.
- There were cost reductions totaling $218,000 from the October report. This makes for a solid Net Revenue in 2017, but with increased costs expected more adjustments are necessary in 2018 and 2019.
- The next member fee increase is forecast for 2020 as planned with the 2016 fee increase
- Section 6 addresses alternatives to raising the member fee by transferring funds to operations from Reserves invested in the long-term portfolio.
1. Membership Fees Revenue . . .

The bar membership count at the end of October reflects a not-so-surprising trend. The low growth in the number of members in the Oregon State Bar each year affect what the revenue will be.

!Net Membership Growth - October

The October data also shows how members are joining the bar. The number of those who entered via the bar exam declined by 94 from 2015. The number who joined via reciprocity increased by 134. An interesting demographic is Multnomah County reported a drop of 71 members from 2015.

CONCLUSION ON MEMBERSHIP FEE REVENUE

Membership Fee revenue will increase 1/2 of 1% for 2017 adding $40,000 in additional revenue.

2. Non-dues (Program Fee) Revenue . . .

Of the six largest sources of Program Fee revenue, three (Admissions, MCLE, Lawyer Referral) report higher revenue in 2017. Two (CLE Seminars, Legal Publications) report declines, and Bulletin advertising is about the same.

Admissions ($805,875): The 2017 budget estimates that 701 candidates will sit for the bar exam. In 2016, 713 sat for the exam. Unknown is the impact of the uniform bar exam which will be offered with the July exam. The 2017 budget revenue is reasonable as for 10-month 2016 revenue is only $7,100 short of that goal.

CLE Seminars ($923,185): This revenue source continues its downward trend and won’t correct until the section co-sponsor issue is resolved and the new AMS software generates more revenue.
Legal Publications ($275,905): The 2017 budget is only $8,900 less than the 2016 budget. Some books expected in 2016 have been deferred to 2017 and new in 2017, books that will be designed and marketed to the Washington lawyer. Sales of printed Legal Publications books will continue to decline as online features grow to be more popular. Revenue bucked the trend in 2015 due to the size and popularity of the Real Estate Desk Book.

MCLE ($343,700): Revenue from Sponsor Fees and Late Fees continues upward and the 2017 projection is a conservative one using the highest-ever 2015 revenue as the base.

Lawyer Referral ($900,000): Revenue from percentage fees has grown every year since its inception in 2010. The 2017 budget of $785,000 is a 4.4% increase over the projected 2016 percentage fee revenue.

CONCLUSION OF NON-DUES REVENUE

Program Fee, or non-dues, revenue, will increase by $223,500 in 2017 primarily due to three program fee revenue sources.

3. The Salary Pool, Taxes & Benefits . . .

SALARIES

a) The bar and PLF CEOs recommend a 3% salary pool for the 2017 budget. A recent Robert Half Salary Survey indicated 3% to 4% increases for finance and administrative positions for 2017.

b) This budget report includes the 3% salary pool which adds approximately $223,600 in personnel costs to the 2017 budget. This is $2,300 less than presented in the October report since $158,780 in salaries, taxes and benefits (including FTE) were eliminated for 2017 since the October report.

c) Including taxes and benefits each 1% salary pool change over the 2016 budget adds $74,900 (again similar to the October report because of personnel reductions).

d) Previous salary pool increases have been: 2016 – 3%; 2015 – 3%; 2014 – 2%; 2013 – 2%; 2012 – 2%; 2011 – 3%.

PERS RATES

e) PERS rates change on July 1, 2017. Tier 1&2 rates increase from 13.30% to 18.67% and OPSRP from 7.33% to 10.78%.

f) These mid-year rates increases add $116,500 to personnel costs for 2017.

g) The overall increase in PERS costs is $100,900 more in 2017 from 2016. This is small compared to the rate increases and is attributable to the decline in PERS salaries by $199,400 from 2016 and the personnel reductions.

h) Worse news about the PERS rates is the 2017 budget includes only six months of the higher rates. The budget in 2018 will include a full year of the higher rates.
CONCLUSION FOR PERSONNEL COSTS

Personnel costs remain the highest expenditure in the bar’s 2017 budget and are 72% of revenue.

4. Changes from 2016 included in the 2017 Budget . . .

The 2017 budget includes some new or changed programs or services. A total of $59,600 in program and administrative costs were removed from the October report, yet these costs still are $183,800 higher than the 2017 budget. Below is a list of new or changed services or projects and other activities with cost increases and the budget for each activity.

a. Governance (BOG)
   Special Projects & Sponsorships for the Board of Governors.
   BUDGET: $10,000 - $5,000 each for Special Projects and Sponsorships. These were reduced by $5,000 each from the October budget report.

b. General Counsel
   Professional Adjudicator (Presiding Disciplinary Judge).
   The 2017 budget assumes the position is approved in the legislative cycle and is in place by September 2017, two months later than included in the October report. Included is a full-time adjudicator and a half-time assistant. The projected annual cost for these positions is $212,000 and one-third that amount is included in the 2017 budget.
   BUDGET: $67,500 increase

c. Special Projects
   Economic Survey
   This survey was performed last in 2012 and each 4 to 5 years since 1989. Staff have received inquiries from members if a current survey is available expressing value in the survey information. The approximate cost of the 2012 survey was $20,000 and is increased for 2017 since a new contractor likely will be awarded the task.
   BUDGET: $25,000

d. Loan Repayment Assistance Program
   Grants
   With the increase in the allocated fee from $5.00 to $10.00 in 2015, more and higher grants will be made in 2017. The 2016 budget includes $142,400 in grants; $173,100 is included in 2017. There is a fund balance carryover for LRAP as the revenue from the $10.00 assessment is $154,100.
   BUDGET: $30,700 increase

e. Technology
   Impact of the new AMS system
   Any cost impact will not be felt until the second half of 2017 as until then time and resources are spent in the go-live and learning the system. The AMS will eliminate some existing IT related costs and add more. The impact on all staff is unknown except that numerous responsibilities and tasks will change and it will take several months for staff to learn the best practices of the system and maximize its functionality and efficiency.
f. Capitalization Policy
   The bar is changing its outdated policy on the cost of capitalizing the purchase of assets from $500 to $1,500. This is suggested by the bar’s auditors, a review of similar organizations’ policy, and the time and effort to monitor the depreciation of assets of $500. The amount in the 2017 budget is $16,050, but that cost will offset by lower depreciation expense.

   BUDGET: $16,050 offset by lower depreciation in 2017 and subsequent years

g. Personnel
   Various Departments
   Personnel costs of $158,780 were reduced or eliminated from the October report. There were personnel changes in 2016 after the final budget due to anticipated changes in tasks caused initially by the AMS project; the reassignment of personnel in New Lawyer Mentoring, Member Services, the New Lawyers Division, and General Counsel; increases in .5 FTE each in Lawyer Referral and Legal Services; personnel changes in Disciplinary Counsel, an increase in the social security base for 2017, and an error in the calculation of benefit costs in 2016 have caused an increase in personnel costs from 2016 to 2017. Included in the cost increase is the 3% salary pool and the higher cost caused by higher PERS rates.

   BUDGET: $626,900 including salaries, taxes and benefits

h. Other Cost Increase
   Various Departments
   Costs of $33,682 are higher in Admissions but is due to the increased revenue .... Depreciation expense is a non-cash item but is $29,300 higher in 2017 as the cost of the AMS software begins being depreciated in the latter part of 2017 ... Disciplinary Counsel costs for court reports and contract services are more heavily needed and higher by $ 12,050.

5. What Stays the Same from the 2016 Budget

   Not all accounts or programs and services in the bar’s budget increase year over year. Here are various services or accounts included in the 2017 budget and have been included in the bar’s budget at the amount listed for several years. They are listed as they are critical services of the bar, but seldom mentioned in financial reports since the amounts have not changed.

   - PLF Grant: The PLF has committed to the $200,000 grant for an undisclosed period.
   - Client Security Fund claims: $200,000 is included as the annual placeholder amount
   - Contingency: $25,000 for unusual or unexpected costs
   - Fastcase: $99,000 annual cost for the popular legal research library
   - Classroom Law Project: $20,000 grant
   - Campaign for Equal Justice: $45,000 grant
   - Council on Court Procedures: $4,000 grant for council member travel expenses
Note: Staff considered reducing the grant to the Classroom Law Project by $5,000 due to the limited number of students benefitting from the grant.

6. Looking Ahead at the Five-Year Forecast . . .

This draft of the 2017 budget includes a Net Revenue of $390,604, and is a $128,000 net revenue improvement over the October report. Although there is a healthy net revenue in 2017, the two years thereafter include a large net expense and a $50.00 (or higher) active member fee increase is forecast in 2020.

The challenge is making the 2016 increase extend until 2020. To do so, here are some possibilities.

- Even though there were substantial changes from the October budget report, it would take another $30,000 to $70,000 to attain the goal mentioned in the October report.
- At its October meeting, the Budget & Finance Committee resolved to review the budget and the bar’s services looking toward 2018 to ascertain what changes should be made to the budget to assure a balanced budget and defer a fee increase as long as possible.
- Increase the Active Member Fee by at least $50.00 in 2020, or possibly 2019, earlier than expected with the last fee increase.
- Within the next three years transfer the funds in the Capital Reserve (invested in the long-term investment portfolio) to general operations and either balance the budget with these funds and delay a fee increase.
  - The bar has paid all AMS costs from operating funds. That is possible due to the large net revenues in 2014 and 2015. The Capital Reserve of $500,000 has never been tapped and could be used to “pay back” operational funds.
- Within the next three years transfer the funds in the PERS Contingency (also invested in the long-term investment portfolio) to general operations to offset the bar’s annual expense for PERS.
  - Similar to the Capital Reserve, all PERS expenses have been paid from the annual operating budget. The PERS Contingency is $434,000 and also has never been tapped to pay for PERS expenses.
  - One or the other of these two reserves could be transferred to general operations, not both.

The Bar has three Reserves – Capital, PERS, Contract Legal Fees - all of which are invested in the bar’s long-term portfolio. Portions could be used to balance the operating budget and hold off a member fee increase in the future.
Within the next three years transfer a portion of the funds in the Contract Legal Fees reserve (currently at $243,923 and also invested in the long-term investment portfolio) to general operations.

Note: In the Five-Year Forecast an arbitrary amount of $400,000 was transferred from reserves to balance the 2018 budget. Doing so is only a one year solution.

7. Restricted Funds . . .

None of the three Restricted Funds 2017 budgets should cause negative financial challenges for each, even though the Client Security Fund and Legal Services project a deficit budget. All three have adequate fund balances to make any financial adjustments. A vacancy in the Diversity & Inclusion director still exists, which only accumulates its fund balance.

The projected fund balances at the end of 2017 are:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fund</th>
<th>2017 Fund Balance</th>
<th>Notes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Client Security Fund</td>
<td>$1,058,000</td>
<td>Always dependent on number of claims; $200,000 is 2017 placeholder; fund balance probably will be higher due to lower claims in 2016</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Diversity &amp; Inclusion</td>
<td>$250,000 to $300,000</td>
<td>Unusually high due to the vacancy in the program director position</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Legal Services</td>
<td>$20,000</td>
<td>Could be higher depending when the legislative appropriation is released</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

8. Fanno Creek Place . . .

The operating loss ($635,422) for Fanno Creek Place will be slightly less than 2016 even if the bar center is not 100% occupied beginning in 2017. This is due to higher rents and the annual decrease in the mortgage interest expense.

- The lease for the 6,015 s.f. expired September 30, 2016 and two other leases expire in the last quarter of 2017. The latter two are expected to renew. The larger space is taking longer to fill.
- If the larger space remains vacant for three months in 2017, the negative cash flow is projected to remain at $392,000, almost identical to 2016.

The Committee will review this report and recommend to the Board of Governors the 2017 budget including decisions on:

a. Changes in the 2017 budget (Section 4 in this report);
b. the 2017 salary pool;
c. other matters (Classroom Law Project, looking toward the 2018 budget and funding for bar services, et al)

Re: 2017 Pro Bono Coverage Plan

Action Recommended

The Board of Directors (BOD) of the Professional Liability Fund requests that the Board of Governors approve the proposed 2017 Pro Bono Coverage Plan (see attached). There are changes to the Plan.

Background

Earlier this year, the Board of Governors approved changes to the 2017 PLF Primary and Excess Plans.

The revisions to the attached 2017 Pro Bono Plan are reflective of the changes made to those Plans.

Attachment: PLF 2017 Pro Bono Coverage Plan
OREGON STATE BAR
PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY FUND

2017 PRO BONO PROGRAM
CLAIMS MADE PLAN

INTRODUCTION

The Professional Liability Fund ("PLF") provides limited coverage regarding Oregon attorneys who claim exemption from PLF Primary coverage and who volunteer their time for Pro Bono Programs jointly certified by the Oregon State Bar and the Professional Liability Fund. Because this coverage is provided at no cost, it is intended to apply only to claims based on or arising from the actual or alleged conduct of volunteer attorneys when there is no other plan or insurance coverage that would apply to any such claim. The coverage provided under this Plan is not the same, in some respects, as the coverage provided under the PLF Primary Plan. The Pro Bono Program and its volunteers should review this Plan carefully in order to understand its restrictions, limitations, exclusions, conditions, and the applicable limit of coverage.

Throughout this Professional Liability Fund ("PLF") Pro Bono Coverage Plan ("Plan"), issued to the Pro Bono Program, identified in the Declarations: Pro Bono Program refers to the Named Program shown in the Declarations; Plan Year means the period of January 1 through December 31 of the calendar year for which this Plan was issued; and Coverage Period means the coverage period shown in the Declarations under the heading "Coverage Period."

When terms appear in bold, with the first letter capitalized, they have the defined meanings set forth, or referenced, in this Plan. Certain definitions and provisions of the PLF Primary Plan are incorporated in this Plan, by reference. A List and Index of Defined Terms is attached as Appendix A.

SECTION I - COVERAGE AGREEMENT

Subject to the terms, conditions, definitions, exclusions, and limitations set forth in this Plan and the applicable Limit of Coverage and Claims Expense Allowance as these are defined and described in Section VIII, the coverage provided by this Plan is as follows:

A. Indemnity

The PLF will pay all sums a Covered Party is Legally Obligated to pay as Damages as a result of a Claim arising from a Covered Activity to which the Coverage Period of this Plan applies, as determined by the rules set forth in Section IV.

A Claim means a demand for Damages, or written notice to a Covered Party of an intent to hold a Covered Party liable as a result of a Covered Activity, if such notice might reasonably be expected to result in an assertion of a right to Damages.

Legally Obligated to pay Damages means a Covered Party is required to make actual payment of monetary Damages and is not protected or absolved from actual payment of

Damages by reason of any covenant not to execute, other contractual agreement of any kind, or a court order, preventing the ability of the claimant to collect money Damages directly from the Covered Party.

Damages means monetary compensation a Covered Party must pay for harm or loss and does not include: fines; penalties; punitive or exemplary damages; statutorily enhanced damages; rescission; injunctions; accountings; equitable relief; restitution; disgorgement; set-off of any fees, costs, or consideration paid to or charged by a Covered Party; or any personal profit or advantage to a Covered Party.

B. Defense

1. Until the Claims Expense Allowance and applicable Limit of Coverage are exhausted, the PLF will defend a Covered Party against any Suit seeking Damages to which this Plan applies. The PLF is not bound by any Covered Party’s agreement to resolve a dispute through arbitration or any other alternative dispute resolution proceeding, and has no duty to defend or indemnify regarding any dispute handled or resolved in this manner without its consent.

   Suit means a civil lawsuit. Suit also includes an arbitration or other alternative dispute resolution proceeding only if the PLF expressly consents to it.

2. The PLF has the sole right to select and appoint defense counsel, to control the defense and investigation of a Claim and, in its discretion, to settle any Claim to which this Plan applies. The PLF has no duty to contribute to the settlement of a Claim based on projected defense costs or on potential liability arising from uncovered claims. Subject to its sole discretion, the PLF may also elect to take steps, or make expenditures, to investigate, prevent, mitigate, review, or repair any Claim or matter that may create the potential for a Claim.

3. The PLF will pay Claims Expense the PLF incurs.

   Claims Expense means fees and expenses charged by any attorney designated by the PLF; all other fees, costs and expenses incurred by the PLF resulting from its investigation, adjustment, defense, prevention, mitigation, review, repair, or appeal of a Claim, or any matter that may create the potential for a Claim; or fees charged by any attorney designated by the Covered Party with the PLF’s written consent. The PLF’s costs for compensation of its regular employees are not considered Claims Expense and do not reduce the available Limit of Coverage.

4. Notwithstanding Exclusions 2 and 4 incorporated in this Plan by Section VI, the PLF will defend Claims for which coverage is excluded under Exclusion 4, and Claims for malicious prosecution, abuse of process and wrongful initiation of civil proceedings, provided such Claims arise out of a Covered Activity and are not otherwise excluded by other applicable exclusions in this Plan. The PLF, however, will not have any duty to indemnify regarding any matter it defends pursuant to this provision.

C. Exhaustion of Limits

The PLF is not obligated to investigate, defend, pay or settle any Claim after the applicable Limit of Coverage and Claims Expense Allowance have been exhausted.
D. No Prior Knowledge or Prior Coverage

This Plan applies only to a Covered Activity that occurred either: (a) during the Coverage Period; or (b) before the Coverage Period if (i) on the effective date of this Plan, the Covered Party had no knowledge of any Claim having been asserted or of any facts or circumstances of which the Covered Party was aware, or reasonably should have been aware, could reasonably result in a Claim arising out of the Covered Activity; (ii) the actual or alleged error, omission negligent act or breach of duty on which the Claim is based occurred during a period in which a previous PLF pro bono Plan applied to the Pro Bono Program; and (iii) there is no prior plan or policy that provides coverage for such liability or Claim, whether or not the available limits of such prior plan or policy are sufficient to pay any liability or Claim.

E. Coverage Territory

This Plan applies to Suits brought in the United States, its territories or possessions, within the jurisdiction of any Indian tribe in the United States, or to any Suit brought in Canada. It does not apply to Suits in any other jurisdiction, or to any Suit to enforce a Judgment rendered in any other such jurisdiction.

SECTION II - WHO IS A COVERED PARTY UNDER THIS PRO BONO PLAN?

Only the following are Covered Parties under this Plan:

A. Individual Volunteer Attorneys

An individual Volunteer Attorney is a Covered Party, but only with respect to a Claim arising from Covered Activities rendered on behalf of the Pro Bono Program, and only if there is no other plan or insurance coverage that applies to such Claim.

Volunteer Attorney means an attorney who: (1) is not otherwise covered under a PLF Primary Plan; (2) provided pro bono Professional Legal Services or Special Capacity Services to clients of the Pro Bono Program; (3) is not employed or compensated in any way by the Pro Bono Program; and (4) was eligible to provide voluntary Professional Legal Services or Special Capacity Services under the applicable rules of the Oregon State Bar at the time such services were provided.

Pro Bono Program means the Pro Bono Program named in the Declarations.

B. The Pro Bono Program

The Pro Bono Program is also a Covered Party under this Plan, but only to the limited extent it is legally liable for any Claim based on or arising from a Volunteer Attorney’s Covered Activities, and only provided the Pro Bono Program has no other applicable plan or insurance coverage for any such liability. In the event any Claim against a Volunteer Attorney also involves Claims against employees of the Pro
SECTION III – WHAT IS A COVERED ACTIVITY?

For the purposes of this Plan, a Covered Activity is an error, omission, negligent act, or breach of duty by a Volunteer Attorney in the course of providing or failing to provide Professional Legal Services or Special Capacity Services to a client or clients of the Pro Bono Program, but only if such services are within the scope of duties assigned to the Volunteer Attorney by the Pro Bono Program.

Professional Legal Services and Special Capacity Services have the meanings set forth in the PLF Primary Plan in effect during this Plan Year and are subject to all the same limitations and conditions set forth in subsections B and C of Section III of the PLF Primary Plan for this Plan Year.

SECTION IV - WHAT IS THE APPLICABLE COVERAGE PERIOD?

A. Date of Claim:

Subject to Subsection IV B, the Coverage Period in effect on the earliest of the following dates applies to a Claim or matter:

1. The date a lawsuit is first filed, or an arbitration or alternative dispute resolution proceeding is first initiated against a Covered Party under this Plan;

2. The date the PLF first becomes aware of a matter involving facts or circumstances that could reasonably result in a Claim against a Covered Party under this Plan;

3. The date notice of a Claim is received by any Covered Party under this Plan;

4. The date the PLF receives notice of a Claim against a Covered Party under this Plan;

5. The date the PLF opens a file in order to take steps and/or make expenditures for a matter that is not a Claim, for the purpose of investigation, mitigation, review or prevention of any potential Claim against a Covered Party under this Plan; or

6. The date a Covered Party under this Plan first becomes aware that a claimant intends to make a Claim, but the claimant is delaying assertion of the Claim, or the Covered Party is delaying notice of such intent to make a Claim, for the purposes of obtaining coverage under a later Plan.

B. Special Rule Regarding Related Claims:

If any Claim against a Covered Party is Related to one or more Related Claim(s), the Coverage Period in effect on the earliest of the following dates applies to the Claim:
1. The date a lawsuit was first filed, or an arbitration or alternative dispute resolution proceeding was initiated with respect to the earliest of the Related Claims;

2. The date the PLF first became aware of facts or circumstances that could reasonably result in the earliest of the Related Claims;

3. The date a Covered Party, under this Plan, or any attorney covered under any other PLF Plan applicable to a Related Claim, received notice of the earliest Related Claim;

4. The date the PLF received notice of the earliest Related Claim; or

5. The date a Covered Party, under this Plan, or any attorney covered under any other PLF Plan applicable to a Related Claim, first became aware that a claimant intended to make the earliest Related Claim, but the claimant was delaying assertion of the Claim, or the Covered Party was delaying notice of such intent to make a Claim, for the purposes of obtaining coverage under a later Plan.

However, if the Pro Bono Program did not have a PLF Pro Bono Plan in effect on the date applicable to the earliest Related Claim pursuant to this subsection IV B, and the Pro Bono Program has no other insurance from any source that is applicable to the Claim, regardless of whether the available limits of such policy are sufficient to cover liability for the Claim, any applicable Coverage Period for the Related Claim is determined using the method set forth in Section IV A.

SECTION V – RELATED CLAIMS

Two or more Claims are Related when they are based on or arise out of facts, practices, circumstances, situations, transactions, occurrences, activities covered under this or any other PLF Plan, or damages, liabilities or the relationship of the people or entities involved (including clients, claimants, attorneys and/or other advisors) that are logically or causally connected or share a common bond or nexus. A Claim against a Covered Party under this Plan may be Related to another Claim against the same Covered Party and/or to a Claim(s) against other Covered Parties, or attorneys covered under other PLF Plans. If Claims are Related, special rules, set forth in Section VIII C, govern the total amount the PLF will pay in defense and indemnity of all such Claims.

Examples of Related Claims set forth in the PLF Primary Plan, in effect during this Plan Year, not intended to be exhaustive, illustrate the intended meaning of Related Claims under this Plan. These examples are incorporated by reference and have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in this Plan.

SECTION VI – APPLICABLE EXCLUSIONS IN PLF PRIMARY PLAN

All Exclusions in the PLF Primary Plan, in effect during this Plan Year, except Exclusion 6, apply equally to the coverage under this Plan. These exclusions are incorporated by reference and have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in this Plan.
SECTION VII – PRO BONO PLAN ADDITIONAL EXCLUSIONS

1. Activities Outside Pro Bono Program Exclusion. This Plan does not apply to any Claim against a Covered Party arising from or related to work or services beyond the scope of activities assigned to the Volunteer Attorney by the Pro Bono Program.

2. Business Interests. This Plan does not apply to any Claim relating to or arising out of any business enterprise:

   a. In which any Covered Party is a general partner, managing member, or employee, or in which any Covered Party was a general partner, managing member, or employee at the time of the alleged acts, errors, or omissions on which the Claim is based;

   b. That is controlled, operated, or managed by any Covered Party, either individually or in a fiduciary capacity, including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith, or was so controlled, operated, or managed by any Covered Party at the time of the alleged acts, errors, or omissions on which the Claim is based; or

   c. In which any Covered Party either has an ownership interest, or had an ownership interest at the time of the alleged acts, errors, or omissions on which the Claim is based unless: (i) such interest is solely a passive investment; and (ii) the Covered Party, those controlled by the Covered Party and his or her spouse, parent, step-parent, child, sibling, any member of the Covered Party’s household, and those with whom the Covered Party is regularly engaged in the practice of law collectively own, or previously owned, an interest in the business enterprise of less than ten percent.

SECTION VIII – LIMIT OF COVERAGE, CLAIMS EXPENSE ALLOWANCE, AND SPECIAL LIMITS REGARDING RELATED CLAIMS

A. Limit of Coverage

The Limit of Coverage for the Coverage Period of this Plan is $300,000. This is a maximum aggregate limit applicable to any and all Claims or matters to which this Plan applies. The making of multiple Claims against any Covered Party or against multiple Covered Parties will not increase the Limit of Coverage, which is reduced by the following payments arising from Claims or matters to which the Coverage Period of this Plan applies:

1. All Claims Expense paid by the PLF, on behalf of any Covered Party under this Plan, that is in excess of any applicable Claims Expense Allowance; and

2. The PLF’s payment, on behalf of any Covered Party under this Plan, of any and all amounts relating to settlements, judgments or any other indemnity payments based on or arising from any and all Claims, or matters that may have the potential to create or result in Claims, against any Covered Party under this Plan.
The shared single $300,000 Limit of Coverage under this Plan applies both to Claims against any and all Volunteer Attorneys to whom this Plan applies and to Claims against the Pro Bono Program for any and all Claims based on or arising from the actual or alleged conduct of any and all such Volunteer Attorneys. Multiple Claims against the Pro Bono Program and/or against any Volunteer Attorney(s) will not increase this $300,000 single Limit of Coverage. If, for example, there is a Claim based on the conduct of one Volunteer Attorney that consumes or reduces the Limit of Coverage under this Plan, there is either no further coverage under this Plan for any Covered Party, or a reduced Limit of Coverage. This Limit of Coverage is also subject to Section VII C below regarding Related Claims.

B. Claims Expense Allowance

In addition to the Limit of Coverage, this Plan also provides a single separate Claims Expense Allowance, meaning an additional allowance in the maximum aggregate amount of $50,000, applicable to the investigation and/or defense of any and all Claims against all Covered Parties under this Plan subject to Section VII C below. The Claims Expense Allowance may be applied only to Claims Expenses, and not to any settlements, judgments or any other indemnity payments.

The shared single $50,000 Claims Expense Allowance under this Plan applies both to Claims against any and all Volunteer Attorneys to whom this Plan applies and/or to Claims against the Pro Bono Program. Multiple Claims against the Pro Bono Program and/or against any Volunteer Attorney(s) will not increase this single $50,000 Claims Expense Allowance. If, for example, there is a Claim based on the conduct of one Volunteer Attorney that consumes or reduces the Claims Expense Allowance, there is either no further Claims Expense Allowance under this Plan for any Covered Party, or a reduced Claims Expense Allowance.

C. Special Rules and Limits for Related Claims

If a Claim against a Covered Party is Related to another Claim against that Covered Party, to any Claim against any other Covered Party under this Plan, or to a Claim against any other attorney, law entity, or pro bono program covered by the PLF under this or any other PLF Plan, then regardless of the number of claims, claimants, clients, attorneys, volunteer attorneys, pro bono programs or law entities involved, the PLF will not pay more than a maximum total of $300,000, plus a maximum of one $50,000 Claims Expense Allowance to defend and/or indemnify all parties covered under this or any other PLF Plan regarding all such Related Claims. This is subject only to the discretionary exception stated below regarding Claims Expense Allowances. In addition, the portion of this total maximum Related Claim limit available for any Claim based on or arising from the actual or alleged conduct of a Covered Party cannot exceed the amount of the remaining limit available under this Plan for the applicable Coverage Period.

The total maximum limit applicable to Related Claims is reduced as the PLF makes expenditures on Related Claims, whether on behalf of any Covered Party under this Plan, or on behalf of any other parties covered under any other PLF Plans against whom Related Claims are made. After the total applicable limit for Related Claims and any Claims Expense Allowance has been exhausted, the PLF is not obligated to investigate, defend, pay or settle any Related Claim against any Covered Party.
Only one Claims Expense Allowance applies regarding Related Claims against any and all Covered Parties under this Plan and against any parties covered under any other PLF Plan. In the sole discretion of the PLF, however, it may grant separate Claims Expense Allowances when there are Related Claims against other parties covered under other PLF Plans.

If the Claims Expense Allowance for the applicable Coverage Period has already been depleted or exhausted by other Claims or matters, the amount of the Claims Expense Allowance will be limited to whatever remains of the Claims Expense Allowance for that Coverage Period.

SECTION IX – DUTIES OF COVERED PARTIES

A. Notice of Claims, Suits and Circumstances

As a condition precedent to any right of protection afforded by this Plan, the Covered Party must give the PLF, at the address shown in the Declarations, timely written notice of any Claim, Suit, or circumstances, as follows:

1. The Covered Party must immediately notify the PLF of any Suit filed against the Covered Party and deliver to the PLF every demand, notice, summons, or other process received.

2. If the Covered Party receives notice of a Claim, or becomes aware of facts or circumstances that reasonably could be expected to be the basis of a Claim for which coverage may be provided under this Plan, the Covered Party must give written notice to the PLF as soon as practicable of: the specific act, error, or omission; any damages or other injury that has resulted or may result; and the circumstances by which the Covered Party first became aware of such act, error, or omission.

3. If the PLF opens a suspense or claim file involving a Claim or potential Claim which otherwise would require notice from the Covered Party under subsection 1 or 2 above, the Covered Party’s obligations under those subsections will be considered satisfied for that Claim or potential Claim.

B. Other Duties of Cooperation

As a condition of coverage under this Plan, every Covered Party must satisfy the duties of cooperation as set forth in Section VIII B through E of the PLF Primary Plan. These conditions are incorporated in this Plan by reference, and have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in this Plan.

SECTION X – ACTIONS BETWEEN THE PLF AND COVERED PARTIES

The provisions of Section IX of the PLF Primary Plan, applicable to this Plan Year, are incorporated into this Plan by reference and have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in this Plan.
SECTION XI – RELATION OF THE PLF’S COVERAGE TO INSURANCE COVERAGE OR OTHER COVERAGE

If any Covered Party has valid and collectible insurance coverage or other obligation to indemnify, including but not limited to self-insured retentions, deductibles, or self-insurance, that also applies to any loss or Claim covered by this Plan, the PLF will not be liable under this Plan until the limits of the Covered Party’s insurance or other obligation to indemnify, including any applicable deductible, have been exhausted, unless such insurance or other obligation to indemnify is written only as specific excess coverage over the Limit of Coverage of this Plan.

SECTION XII – WAIVER AND ESTOPPEL

The provisions of Section XII of the PLF Primary Plan, applicable to this Plan Year are incorporated by reference and have the same force and effect as if fully set forth in this Plan.

SECTION XIII — ASSIGNMENT

Any interest of any Covered Party under this Plan is not assignable. Any such assignment or attempted assignment without the express written consent of the PLF, voids any coverage under the Plan.

SECTION XIV — TERMINATION

This Plan will terminate immediately and automatically in the event the Pro Bono Program is no longer certified as a Pro Bono Program by the Oregon State Bar.
Action Recommended

Approve the 2017 Budget.

Background

On an annual basis, the Board of Governors approves the PLF budget for the coming year. The attached materials contain the proposed budget.

Both the Executive Director of the Bar and the CEO of the PLF recommend a 3.0% salary pool. This salary pool is separate from reclassifications that are in the budget and occurs when individuals take on additional responsibilities and move to a new classification with tenure (e.g. Claims Attorney I to Claims Attorney II). After the budget was prepared and submitted to the PLF Board but before the Board voted, the PLF received the PERS employer contribution amounts for the July 2017 to June 2019 biennium. The increases were 40.59% and 47.47% on tiers 1 & 2, and OPSRP respectively. Additionally, an adjustment to the increase in medical benefits costs of 5% was recommended. These two adjustments increase budgeted expenses by $35,525. The PLF Board voted to approve the Budget with the expectation that the increases to these expenses would be incorporated into the budget. The attached budget reflects those additions.

The June 30, 2016 actuarial rate study estimates a cost of $2,730 per lawyer for new 2017 claims, remaining the same from 2016. But, as in the past, this budget includes a factor for adverse claims development. For 2017, we are projecting $500,000 in adverse claim development, which equals approximately $72 per attorney. In prior years, this amount has been closer to $150. The reduction in the number of claims has allowed this number to decline. As in all previous years, an operational shortfall exists for 2017. This year it is $871 per attorney. This shortfall is covered by the Fund’s net position.

2017 PLF Budget

Number of Covered Attorneys

We have provided the number of covered attorneys by period for both the Primary and Excess Programs. (The figures are found on pages 1 and 8 of the budget document.) These statistics illustrate the changes in the number of lawyers covered by each program and facilitate period-to-period comparisons.

For the Primary Program, new attorneys paying reduced primary assessments and lawyers covered for portions of the year have been combined into “full pay” attorneys. We project 6,950 “full-pay” attorneys for 2017. The actual number of covered parties in 2017 is expected to be approximately 7200.

The PLF Excess program anticipates continued growth. The number of covered attorneys is expected to increase by 8% to 2298. There is an expected increase to ceding commissions of 15%.

Allocation of Costs between the Excess and Primary Programs

In 1991, the PLF established an optional underwritten plan to provide excess coverage above the existing mandatory plan. There is separate accounting for Excess Program assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. The Excess Program reimburses the Primary Program for services so that the Primary Program does not subsidize the cost of the Excess Program. A portion of Primary Program salary, benefits, and other operating costs are allocated to the Excess Program. Salary and benefit allocations are based on an annual review of the time PLF staff spends on Excess Program activities. These allocations are reviewed and adjusted each year. The Excess program also pays for some direct costs, including printing and reinsurance related travel.

Primary Program Revenue

Projected assessment revenue for 2017 is based upon the $3,500 assessment paid by the estimated 6950 full pay attorneys.

Investment returns have been volatile for the PLF in the first 8 months of 2016. The first six months showed losses while the 7th and 8th month of the fiscal year have seen some recovery in the portfolio. 2017 is equally difficult to project with uncertainty around the impact of the United States election and the disengagement of the UK from the European union. Based on performance of the portfolio overall in 2016, we are conservatively projecting an overall portfolio return of 3.27% in 2017. A .5% change to the projected rate has a value of approximately $267,815.

Primary Program Claims Expense

By far the largest cost category for the PLF is claim costs for indemnity and defense. Since claims often don’t resolve quickly, these costs are paid over several years after the claim is first made. The ongoing calculation of estimated claim costs, along with investment results are the major factors in determining the Primary Program’s positive/negative in-year results.

For any given year, financial statement claims expense includes two factors: (1) the cost of new claims and (2) any additional upward (or downward) adjustments to the estimate of claims liabilities reflecting positive or adverse claims development for those pending at the beginning of the year. Factor 1 (new claims) is much larger and much more important than factor 2.

Our projections of claim costs for 2017 are based on a projected claim count for 2017 of 870 claims. At August 31, 2016 the PLF annualized claim count is at 871. The cost of each new claim has been budgeted in accordance with actuarial recommendations of $22,500. The claims frequency anticipated for 2017 is 12.5%. A 5% difference in the estimated claim count from that budgeted equates to 43.5 claims or $978,750.
Full-Time Employee Statistics (Staff Positions)

We have included “full-time equivalent” or FTE statistics to show PLF staffing levels from year to year. FTE statistics are given for each department on their operating expense schedule. The following table shows positions by department. Each department is indicated net of Excess staff allocations (explained below):

Salary Pool for 2017

In consultation with the Oregon State Bar, a three percent cost of living increase is recommended for 2017. The budget reflects planned reclassifications. Salary reclassification is done either for those employees who changed status (e.g. Claims Attorney I to Claims Attorney II) or to increase salaries for recently hired employees hired at “probationary salaries”¹ or to address a historical lack of parity between the salaries of employees in positions with equivalent responsibilities.

Benefit Expense

The employer cost of PERS and Medical/Dental insurance are the two major cost drivers for PLF benefits.

The employer contribution rates for PERS will remain the same as 2016 for the first six months of 2017. However, a new biennium commences on July 1, 2017. In the absence of any reliable indication from the State around the new biennium numbers, an increase of 20% from the first six months of 2017 rates has been budgeted for the second half of 2017.

Unlike most state and local employers, the PLF does not “pick up” the mandatory 6% employee contribution to PERS. PLF employees have the six percent employee contribution deducted from their biweekly remuneration.

The PLF covers the cost of medical and dental insurance for PLF employees. PLF employees pay about fifty percent of the additional cost of providing medical and dental insurance to dependents.

Capital Budget Items

The major capital purchases in 2017 will be functional furniture for claims attorneys. The anticipated cost of this furniture is approximately $57,000. There are smaller amounts allocated to various leasehold updates and the purchase of computer peripherals.

Other Primary Operating Expenses with Changes from 2016 +/- 10%

- Depreciation will increase from 2016 due to the purchase of new desk tops for PLF staff and the purchase of two network servers.

- Loss Prevention Programs have increases due to increased FTE, increased staff training, and web distribution of programming.

- Defense Panel Program happens only bi-annually and there was no conference in 2016. Hence, the increase in 2017.

- Library charges are decreasing at the discretion of the claims attorney responsible for stocking the library.

- Credit Card Fees will continue to increase as the use of credit cards to pay primary assessments is expected to increase.

Excess Program Budget

The major revenue item for the Excess Program is ceding commissions. These commissions represent the portion of the excess premium that the PLF retains. The commissions are based upon a percentage of the premium charged, with commissions varying depending on the coverage limits. Most of the excess premium is turned over to reinsurers who cover the costs of excess claims. We currently project ceding commission of $876,300 for 2017. This represents an anticipated increase from the 2016 level of ceding commissions.

Excess investment earnings are calculated using a formula that allocates investment revenue based on contribution to cash flow from the Excess Program.

OREGON STATE BAR
Board of Governors Agenda

Meeting Date: November 18, 2016
Memo Date: October 20, 2016
From: Carol J. Bernick, PLF CEO
Re: Proposed Policy Revisions Policies 7.300, 7.600 and 4.350

Action Recommended

We are seeking three changes to the PLF Policies and Procedures. The first two relate to the Excess program and the third change relates to how we do reserves.

Background

Excess Plan

1. Amendment to PLF Policy 7.300(E).

In 2015, the Board and the BOG approved changes to the PLF policies that flowed from a complete overhaul of the way we price excess. Before the 2016 plan year, the PLF priced excess essentially the same as primary with a single price (a limited number of lawyers with past claims that met a certain threshold and/or who practiced in high risk areas were charged a higher premium). Historically the BOD and then the BOG approved those rates. The change in our pricing eliminated standard rates. We now have a rate sheet that includes a base rate, but which applies numerous debits and credits based on a wide range of factors (generally outlined in PLF Policies 7.250 and 7.600).

In 2015, we amended PLF Policy 7.300(E) to read:

Assessments for excess coverage will be determined through an underwriting formula and rate sheet. Base rates will be set by the PLF in agreement with reinsurers and will be approved by the Board of Governors upon recommendation of the PLF Board of Directors.

We are seeking to amend the policy to eliminate approval of the base rate. The new Policy 7.300(E) would read:

Assessments for excess coverage will be determined through an underwriting formula and rate sheet. Base rates will be set by the PLF in agreement with reinsurers and will be reported to the Board of Directors and approved by the Board of Governors.

There are two reasons for requesting this change. First, the base rate is not particularly informative of what any given lawyer will pay. For the 2016 Plan Year the base rate was $1150. By way of example, solo practitioners seeking an additional $700,000 in coverage paid anywhere from $1200 - $1700 for that coverage, depending on their risk profile.

The second reason for the change is because the base rate becomes part of the negotiations and the contract with our reinsurers. We need to have flexibility to work with them (through our broker, Aon) to adjust the base rate to meet the overall premium goals we have. Those negotiations occur between mid-September and October 1. If the BOD and BOG approve the base rate in August and early September (respectively), the subsequent negotiations with reinsurers may require an adjustment to that rate. Once we sign the contract with the reinsurers, if the BOD and/or BOG doesn't approve the base rate, we are arguably in breach of contract.

2. Amendment to PLF Policy 7.600(M)(1)

This request follows the preceding request. Policy 7.600(M)(1) currently reads:

Higher limits coverage: Firms who meet the additional underwriting criteria and procedures established by the PLF and its reinsurers may be eligible to purchase limits in excess of the $4.7 million excess limits offered by the PLF's standard excess program. In accordance with reinsurance agreements, firms applying for higher limits coverage may be subject to additional underwriting considerations and may not be eligible for credits available with the standard excess program coverage.

(1) The higher limits coverage will be an additional $5 million in excess of the $4.7 million standard excess coverage. Firms seeking coverage above the $4.7 million standard excess coverage will be subject to the standard underwriting formula and rate sheet and also subject to reinsurer approval and rating adjustment, will be charged for higher limits excess coverage at rates proposed by the PLF Board of Directors and approved by the OSB Board of Governors. These rates are subject to reinsurer adjustment for firms meeting certain underwriting criteria.

(1) We are seeking to amend the policy to read as follows:

(1) The higher limits coverage will be an additional $5 million in excess of the $4.7 million standard excess coverage. Firms seeking coverage above the $4.7 million standard excess coverage will be subject to the standard underwriting formula and rate sheet and also subject to reinsurer approval and rating adjustment, will be charged for higher limits excess coverage at rates proposed by the PLF Board of Directors and approved by the OSB Board of Governors. These rates are subject to reinsurer adjustment for firms meeting certain underwriting criteria.
3. Amendment to PLF Policy 4.350(C)

We have discovered that the policy with respect to reserving for defense expenses is not consistent with our claims handling manual or actual practices (and in fact has not been the policy of the PLF for a significant amount of time). It therefore needs to be revised to comport with our actual practice.

PLF Policy 4.350(C) currently reads:

Expense reserves will be adjusted as payment of defense costs and attorneys fees are received and paid so as to keep the reserve a positive or zero balance. The carrying of excessive expense reserves is to be avoided.

This policy is a holdover from when the PLF was not fully funded. We are well past that now. We recommend deleting this policy as the other provisions of the policy describing the reserving policy and procedures applies equally to indemnity and loss. The new PLF Policy 4.350 would read as follows:

(A) It is the policy of the Professional Liability Fund to establish both loss and expense reserves as quickly and accurately as possible as part of the claim file set-up procedure. Consideration is to be given to the following factors in light of what is known at any given time:

(1) The degree of potential liability of the Covered Party for negligent acts or omissions.
(2) The nature and extent of the claimant’s damages.
(3) Coverage questions.
(4) Defenses available to the Covered Party on the malpractice issue.
(5) The nature of the underlying case.
(6) Defenses available in the underlying case.
(7) Jurisdiction in which the claim is or would be filed.
(8) Mitigation efforts by claimant in the underlying case.
(9) Opinion of defense counsel.
(10) Character and reputation of the Covered Party and the claimant.
(11) General assessment of the overall situation, both as to the underlying and malpractice cases.
(12) Reports and assessments of liability received from outside experts.
(13) Such other factors as may be deemed relevant to the claim.

(B) It is the PLF’s policy that all loss and expense reserves will be reviewed by the Professional Liability Fund staff attorney assigned to the case at least every 90 days, and more often if new information is received which bears on file evaluation.

Board of Governors Agenda

Meeting Date: November 18, 2016
Memo Date: October 20, 2016
From: Carol J. Bernick, PLF CEO
Re: 2017 Excess Base Rate

Action Recommended

The PLF Board of Directors (BOD) requests that the Board of Governors approve a base rate of $1,322 for 2017 excess coverage.

Background

In addition to its primary coverage, the PLF provides optional excess coverage to Oregon attorneys. The excess coverage is completely reinsured. Rates are determined through negotiations between the PLF and the excess reinsurers, usually Lloyds of London syndicates. Each year’s rates are based on the ongoing PLF experience and predicted future trends, as well as in-person discussions between representatives of the PLF and reinsurers.

Since the PLF began offering excess coverage, we approached pricing in a way similar to that of the primary program: a single rate. For excess, we did charge a higher rate for lawyers practicing in high risk areas (primarily securities and certain types of real estate) or who had a history of claims that met a certain severity threshold (not something we do at primary). We also had two rates for out-of-state attorneys.

As I have been reporting in my updates to the BOG, the PLF completely changed its excess pricing system for 2016. We have discontinued the two-rate model in favor of a fully underwritten approach that begins with a base rate. At the October 14, 2016 PLF Board meeting, the Board approved a base rate of $1322. This rate was developed after extensive modeling provided by our broker in London, Aon, working closely with our largest reinsurer. The rates for our Excess Program will increase in 2017, generally between 15-20%. We have nearly $9 million in loss development in the previous two years. Oregon’s strict liability securities law has generated about 80% of that loss.

Memo Date: October 20, 2016
From: Carol J. Bernick, PLF CEO
Re: 2017 PLF Investment Portfolio Reallocation – PLF Policy 5.200(1)

Action Recommended

The PLF Board of Directors recommends that the Board of Governors approve the following:

-10% from Diversified Inflation Strategies
+4% US Equity
+2% International Equity
+4% Core Fixed Income.

Background

The need to protect the PLF’s investment portfolio from deleterious inflationary effects is no longer required in this economic climate of relatively low inflation levels. Hence, in consultation with our outside investment advisors (RVK, Inc.), the Board recommends diversifying out of inflation protected assets and into existing, relatively well performing components of the portfolio.

Attachment: PLF Policy 5.200(1) - Tracked allocation to deem that it is appropriate for the PLF investment objectives. Within each asset class, the Board of Directors shall adopt portfolio implementation strategies and investment styles to meet the overall investment objective of each asset class.

The following is intended to represent the current target mix of asset classes for long term investments:

(J) Rebalancing: The Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, on an ongoing basis and in accordance with market fluctuations, shall rebalance the investment portfolio so it remains within the range of minimum and maximum allocations.

5.250 AUDITING AND ACCOUNTING ASSISTANCE

The Board of Directors hires the independent financial auditor subject to the requirements of the Oregon Secretary of State. Any audit report will be made directly to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may retain additional outside accounting advice whenever it deems necessary.

5.300 CLAIMS RESERVES

The estimated liability for claims is the major item in the Liabilities and Equity portion of the Professional Liability Fund's Balance Sheet. The accuracy of this item is crucial when presenting the financial condition of the PLF. The Chief Executive Officer will periodically review the case-by-case indemnity and expense reserves required under section 4.350 and will adjust these figures to present at all times as accurate a picture as possible of the total claims liabilities incurred by the PLF. The Chief Executive Officer will use consulting actuaries when appropriate. The method of calculating estimated liabilities will be reported in detail to the Board on at least an annual basis.

5.350 BUDGET

A budget for the Primary and Excess Programs will be as approved by the Board of Directors and the Board of Governors. The budget will reflect the PLF's mission and goals as stated at Policy 1.250. The Excess Program will be allocated a portion of all common costs based upon the benefits received from PLF departments and programs. The budget will be prepared and submitted for approval of the Board of Governors in the same manner as budgets of other functions of the bar. The Primary Program budget will be presented to the Board of Governors in conjunction with the recommended Primary Program assessment for the coming year.

Disciplinary and contested reinstatement proceedings are neither civil nor criminal in nature but are sui generis, and are designed as the means to determine whether an attorney should be disciplined for misconduct, or whether an applicant’s conduct should preclude the applicant from being reinstated to membership in the Bar.

(Rule 1.3 amended by Order dated October 19, 2009.)

Rule 1.4 Jurisdiction; Choice of Law.
(a) Jurisdiction. An attorney admitted to the practice of law in Oregon, and any attorney specially admitted by a court or agency in Oregon for a particular case, is subject to the Bar Act and these rules, regardless of where the attorney’s conduct occurs. The Supreme Court’s jurisdiction over matters involving the practice of law by an attorney shall continue whether or not the attorney retains the authority to practice law in Oregon, and regardless of the residence of the attorney. An attorney may be subject to the disciplinary authority of both Oregon and another jurisdiction in which the attorney is admitted for the same conduct.

(b) Choice of Law. In any exercise of the disciplinary authority of Oregon, the rules of professional conduct to be applied shall be as follows:

(1) For conduct in connection with a proceeding in a court before which an attorney has been admitted to practice, either generally or for purposes of that proceeding, the rules to be applied shall be the rules of the jurisdiction in which the court sits, unless the rules of the court provide otherwise; and

(2) For any other conduct,

(A) If the attorney is licensed to practice only in Oregon, the rules to be applied shall be the Oregon Code of Professional Responsibility and the Bar Act; and

(B) If the attorney is licensed to practice in Oregon and another jurisdiction, the rules to be applied shall be the rules of the jurisdiction in which the attorney principally practices; provided, however, that if particular conduct clearly has its predominant effect in another jurisdiction in which the attorney is licensed to practice, the rules of that jurisdiction shall be applied to that conduct.

(c) Application. The provisions of BR 1.4 shall apply to conduct occurring on or before December 31, 2004. Conduct occurring on or after January 1, 2005, is governed by Rule of Professional Conduct 8.5.

(Rule 1.4 amended by Order dated September 30, 1996.)

Rule 1.5 Effective Date.

(a) These rules [shall] apply to all disciplinary and contested reinstatement proceedings initiated by the service of a formal complaint or statement of objections on an accused respondent or an applicant on or after January 1, 1984.

(b) The provisions of BR 1.5(a) [shall] apply except to the extent that in the opinion of the Supreme Court their application in a particular matter or proceeding would not be feasible or would work an injustice. In that event, the former or current rule most consistent with the fair and expeditious resolution of the matter or proceeding under consideration shall be applied.

(Rule 1.5(a) amended by Order dated July 22, 1991.)

Proof of such service by mail shall be by certificate showing the date of deposit in the mail.

(c) Service of all other pleadings or documents on an attorney who has designated an address that is

Title 2 — Structure And Duties

Rule 2.1 Qualifications of Counsel.

(a) Definition of [Accused]Respondent. Notwithstanding BR 1.1(a), for the purposes of this rule, “[accused]respondent” means an attorney who is the subject of an allegation of misconduct that is under investigation by the Bar, or who has been charged with misconduct by the Bar in a formal complaint.

Rule 2.5 Intake and Review of Inquiries[ and Complaints] by Client Assistance Office.

(a) Client Assistance Office. The Bar [will] shall maintain a Client Assistance Office, separate from that of Disciplinary Counsel. The Client Assistance Office [will] shall, to the extent possible and resources permitting, receive, review, and respond to all inquiries from the public concerning the conduct of attorneys and may
The Client Assistance Office will also receive and review all complaints about the conduct of attorneys. The Client Assistance Office will consider inquiries submitted in person, by telephone or by e-mail, but may require the complainant to submit the matter in writing before taking any action. The Client Assistance Office will determine the manner and extent of review required for the appropriate disposition of any inquiry.

(b) Disposition by Client Assistance Office.

(1) If the Client Assistance Office determines that, even if true, an inquiry does not allege misconduct, it shall dismiss the inquiry with written notice to the complainant and to the attorney named in the inquiry.

(2) If the Client Assistance Office determines, after reviewing the inquiry and any other information deemed relevant, that there is sufficient evidence to support a reasonable belief that misconduct may have occurred, the inquiry shall be referred to Disciplinary Counsel as a grievance. Otherwise, the inquiry shall be dismissed with written notice to the complainant and the attorney.

(3) The Client Assistance Office may, at the request of the complainant, contact the attorney and attempt to assist the parties in resolving the complainant’s concerns, but the provision of such assistance does not preclude a referral to Disciplinary Counsel of any matter brought to the attention of the Client Assistance Office.

(c) Review by General Counsel. Any inquiry dismissed by the Client Assistance Office may be reviewed by General Counsel upon written request of the complainant. General Counsel may request additional information from the complainant or the attorney, and, after review, shall either affirm the Client Assistance Office dismissal or refer the inquiry to Disciplinary Counsel as a grievance. Rule 2.6 Investigations

(a) Review of Grievance by Disciplinary Counsel.

(1) For grievances referred to Disciplinary Counsel by the Client Assistance Office pursuant to BR 2.5(a)(2), Disciplinary Counsel shall, within 14 days after receipt of the grievance, mail a copy of the grievance to the attorney, if the Client Assistance Office has not already done so, and notify the attorney that he or she must respond to the grievance in writing to Disciplinary Counsel within 21 days of the date Disciplinary Counsel requests such a response. Disciplinary Counsel may grant an extension of time to respond for good cause shown upon the written request of the attorney. An attorney need not respond to the grievance if he or she provided a response to the Client Assistance Office and is notified by Disciplinary Counsel that further information from the attorney is not necessary.

(2) If the attorney fails to respond to Disciplinary Counsel or to provide records requested by Disciplinary Counsel within the time allowed, Disciplinary Counsel may file a petition with the Disciplinary Board to suspend the attorney from the practice of law, pursuant to the procedure set forth in BR 7.1. Notwithstanding the
(3) Disciplinary Counsel may, if appropriate, offer to enter into a diversion agreement with the attorney pursuant to BR 2.10. If Disciplinary Counsel chooses not to offer a diversion agreement to the attorney pursuant to BR 2.10 and does not dismiss the grievance pursuant to BR 2.6(b), Disciplinary Counsel shall refer the grievance to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting.

(b) Dismissal of Grievance by Disciplinary Counsel. If, after considering a [disciplinary] grievance [complaint], the response of the attorney, and any additional information deemed relevant, Disciplinary Counsel determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, Disciplinary Counsel shall dismiss the grievance [complaint shall be dismissed]. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney [shall be notified in writing by Disciplinary Counsel] of the dismissal in writing. A complainant may contest in writing the action taken by Disciplinary Counsel in dismissing his or her grievance [complaint], in which case Disciplinary Counsel shall submit a report on the grievance [complaint] to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. The SPRB shall thereafter take such action as it deems appropriate [on such complaint].

(c) Review of Grievance by SPRB.

(1) If Disciplinary Counsel determines that misconduct may be involved, the complaint shall be referred by Disciplinary Counsel to an appropriate LPRC for further investigation, or referred by Disciplinary Counsel to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. If the complaint is referred to an LPRC by Disciplinary Counsel, the procedure specified in BR 2.3(a) shall be followed. Otherwise, the SPRB shall evaluate [the] a grievance [complaint] based on the report of Disciplinary Counsel to determine whether probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred. The SPRB shall either dismiss the grievance [complaint], [refer it to an LPRC] admonish the attorney, [authorize Disciplinary Counsel to negotiate and enter into a diversion agreement pursuant to BR 2.10] direct Disciplinary Counsel to file [approve the filing of] a formal complaint by the Bar against the attorney, or take action within the discretion granted to the SPRB by these rules.

(A) If the SPRB determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, the SPRB shall dismiss the grievance [complaint], and Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney [shall be notified] of the dismissal in writing [by Disciplinary Counsel].

(B) If the SPRB determines that the attorney should be admonished, Disciplinary Counsel shall so notify the attorney [such procedure shall be initiated] within 14 days of the SPRB’s meeting. If an attorney refuses to accept the admonition within the time specified by Disciplinary Counsel, Disciplinary Counsel shall file a formal complaint [shall be filed by the Bar] against the attorney on behalf of the Bar. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant [and the attorney] in writing of the admonition of the attorney [this action].

(C) If the SPRB determines that the complaint should be investigated further, Disciplinary Counsel shall conduct the investigation and [or submit the complaint to the appropriate LPRC within 14 days of the SPRB’s meeting]. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant [and the attorney] in writing of such [this] action.

[(d) Review of LPRC Reports by SPRB.

(1) Disciplinary Counsel shall submit an LPRC’s report to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. The SPRB shall evaluate the complaint based on the LPRC’s report and the report of Disciplinary Counsel to determine whether probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred. The SPRB shall either dismiss the complaint, have it investigated further, admonish the attorney, authorize Disciplinary Counsel to negotiate and enter into a diversion agreement pursuant to BR 2.10, approve the filing of a formal complaint against the attorney, or take action within the discretion granted to the SPRB by these rules.
(A) If the SPRB determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the attorney shall be notified of the dismissal in writing by Disciplinary Counsel.

(B) If the SPRB determines that the attorney should be admonished, such action shall be initiated within the time set forth in BR 2.6(c)(1)(B). If an attorney refuses to accept the admonition within the time specified by Disciplinary Counsel, a formal complaint shall be filed by the Bar against the attorney. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action.

(C) If the SPRB determines that further investigation is needed, Disciplinary Counsel shall conduct the investigation or, within 14 days of the SPRB’s meeting, refer the matter to the appropriate LPRC member who shall conduct a further investigation in accordance with BR 2.3(a). The further investigation by an LPRC shall be completed and a report shall be filed with Disciplinary Counsel within 30 days after the date of the referral. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action. The report of the further investigation shall be submitted to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting, at which the SPRB shall take action in accordance with BR 2.6(d)(1).

(d) Reconsideration; Discretion to Rescind.

(1) An SPRB decision [by the SPRB] to dismiss a grievance or allegation of misconduct against an attorney shall not preclude reconsideration or further proceedings on such grievance or allegation, if evidence that is not available or submitted at the time of such dismissal justifies, in the judgment of not less than a majority of SPRB, such reconsideration or further proceedings.

(2) The SPRB may rescind a decision [by the SPRB] to file a formal complaint against an attorney [for misconduct may be rescinded by the SPRB] only when, to the satisfaction of a majority of the entire SPRB, good cause exists. Good cause is:

   (A) new evidence that would have clearly affected the SPRB’s decision to file a formal complaint; or

   (B) legal authority, not known to the SPRB at the time of its last consideration of the matter, that establishes that the SPRB’s decision to file a formal complaint was incorrect.

(e) Approval of Filing of Formal Complaint.

(1) If the SPRB determines that a formal complaint should be filed against an attorney, or if an attorney rejects an admonition offered by the SPRB, Disciplinary Counsel may appoint Bar Counsel. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the attorney and the complainant in writing of such action.

(2) Notwithstanding an SPRB determination [by the SPRB] that probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred, the SPRB shall have the discretion to direct that the Bar take no further action on a grievance or allegation of misconduct [be taken by the Bar] if one or more of the following circumstances exist:

   (A) the attorney is no longer an active member of the Bar or is not engaged in the practice of law, and is required under BR 8.1 to demonstrate good moral character and general fitness to practice law before resuming active membership status or the practice of law in Oregon;

   (B) other disciplinary proceedings are pending that are likely to result in the attorney’s disbarment;

   (C) other disciplinary charges are authorized or pending and the anticipated sanction, should the Bar prevail on those charges, is not likely to be affected by a finding of misconduct in the new matter or on an additional charge; or [D] formal disciplinary proceedings are impractical in light of the circumstances or the likely outcome of the proceedings.

An exercise of discretion under this rule to take no further action on a grievance[complaint] or allegation of misconduct shall not preclude further SPRB consideration or proceedings [by the SPRB] on such grievance[complaint] or allegation in the future.

(3) Notwithstanding an SPRB determination [by the SPRB] that probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred, the SPRB shall have the discretion to dismiss a grievance[complaint] or allegation of misconduct if the SPRB, considering the facts and circumstances as a whole, determines that dismissal would further the interests of justice and would not be harmful to the interests of clients or the public. Factors the SPRB may take into account in exercising its discretion [under this rule] include, but are not limited to:

(A) the attorney’s mental state;

(B) whether the misconduct is an isolated event or part of a pattern of misconduct;

(C) the potential or actual injury caused by the attorney’s misconduct;

(D) whether the attorney fully cooperated in the investigation of the misconduct; and

(E) whether the attorney previously was admonished or disciplined for misconduct.

Misconduct that adversely reflects on the attorney’s honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness to practice law shall not be subject to dismissal under this rule.

(f)(g) Investigation of Complaints Against Disciplinary Counsel, General Counsel or other Bar agents. Complaints of misconduct concerning Disciplinary Counsel or General Counsel of the [Oregon State] Bar, or complaints that Bar Counsel or members of an LPRC of the [Oregon State] Bar, or complaints that Bar Counsel or members of an LPRC have engaged in misconduct while acting on the Bar’s behalf, shall be referred to the chairperson of the State Professional Responsibility Board within seven days of their receipt by the Bar.

(1) If the SPRB chairperson determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, the SPRB chairperson[complaint] shall [be] dismiss[ed] the inquiry and notify the parties [shall be notified] of the dismissal in writing[by the SPRB chairperson]. A complainant may contest the dismissal in writing[the dismissal], in which case the matter shall be submitted to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. The SPRB shall thereafter take such action as it deems appropriate[on the complaint].

(2) If the SPRB chairperson determines the inquiry[complaint] should be investigated, the SPRB chairperson may appoint[ a local professional responsibility committee or] an investigator of his or her choice to investigate the matter and to report on the matter directly to the SPRB. The same procedure shall, as far as practicable, apply to the investigation of such grievances[complaints] as apply to members of the [Oregon State] Bar generally.

Rule 2.7 Investigations Of Alleged Misconduct Other Than By Complaint.

Allegations or instances of alleged misconduct that are brought or come to the attention of the Bar other than through the receipt of a written inquiry[complaint] shall be evaluated using the procedure specified in BR 2.6
except as that rule may be inapplicable due to the lack of a written grievance or a complainant with whom to communicate.

(Rule amended and renumbered by Order dated July 9, 2003, effective August 1, 2003.)

Rule 2.8 Proceedings Not To Stop On Compromise.

(Rule renumbered by Order dated July 9, 2003, effective August 1, 2003.)

Rule 2.9 Requests For Information And Assistance.

The Bar may request a complainant or applicant to supply and disclose to the investigating authorities of the Bar all documentary and other evidence in his or her possession, and the names and addresses of witnesses relating to his or her inquiry, and may otherwise request the complainant to assist such investigating authorities in obtaining evidence in support of the facts surrounding his or her inquiry.

(Rule renumbered by Order dated July 9, 2003, effective August 1, 2003.)

Rule 2.10 Diversion.

(a) Diversion Offered by Disciplinary Counsel. As an alternative to seeking authority from the SPRB to offer an attorney an admonition or to file a formal complaint against an attorney, or prosecuting a formal complaint that has been filed, the SPRB may authorize Disciplinary Counsel may offer to an attorney to divert a grievance on the condition that the attorney agrees to participate in a remedial program as set forth in the agreement. Subject to the provisions of this rule, the SPRB has the discretion to determine whether to authorize diversion of a complaint or allegation of misconduct. An attorney does not have a right to have a grievance or allegation of misconduct diverted under this rule.

(b) Diversion Eligibility. The SPRB may consider diversion of a grievance if:

1. The misconduct does not involve the misappropriation of funds or property; fraud, dishonesty, deceit or misrepresentation; or the commission of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony under Oregon law;

2. The misconduct appears to be the result of inadequate law office management, chemical dependency, a physical or mental health condition, negligence, or a lack of training, education or other similar circumstance; and

3. There appears to be a reasonable likelihood that the successful completion of a remedial program will prevent the recurrence of conduct by the attorney similar to that under consideration for diversion.

(c) Offer of Diversion.

1. If, after investigation by Disciplinary Counsel or an LPRC, the SPRB determines that an attorney may have committed misconduct and that the matter is appropriate for diversion under this rule, Disciplinary Counsel may offer a diversion agreement to the attorney.
attorney has[shall have] 30 days from the date diversion is offered to accept and enter into the diversion agreement. Disciplinary Counsel may grant an extension of time to the attorney for good cause shown.

(2) An attorney may decline to enter into a diversion agreement, in which case Disciplinary Counsel shall refer the grievance[complaint or allegation of misconduct shall be referred back] to the SPRB for review pursuant to Rule 2.6[ or, if a formal complaint has been filed, proceed to hearing].

(d) Diversion Agreement.

(1) A diversion agreement shall require the attorney to participate in a specified remedial program to address the apparent cause of the misconduct. Such a remedial program may include, but is not limited to: appointment of a diversion supervisor; assistance or training in law office management; chemical dependency treatment; counseling or peer support meetings; oversight by an experienced practicing attorney; voluntary limitation of areas of practice for the period of the diversion agreement; restitution; or a prescribed course of continuing legal education. The attorney shall pay[bear] the costs of a remedial program.

(2) A diversion agreement[ further] shall require the attorney to stipulate to a set of facts concerning the complaint or allegation of misconduct being diverted[,] and to agree that, in the event the attorney fails to comply with the terms of the diversion agreement, the stipulated facts shall be deemed true in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding.

(3) A diversion agreement may be amended at any time [with the consent of the SPRB]by agreement between Disciplinary Counsel and the attorney. [The SPRB]Disciplinary Counsel is not obligated to amend a diversion agreement to incorporate additional complaints or allegations of misconduct made against the attorney subsequent to the date of the original agreement.

(4) The term of a diversion agreement shall be no more than 24 months following the date of the last amendment to the agreement.

(5) In a diversion agreement, the attorney shall agree that a diversion supervisor, treatment provider or any other person to whom the attorney has been referred pursuant to the remedial program specified in the agreement shall report to Disciplinary Counsel any failure by the attorney to comply with the terms of the agreement.

(6) If a[A] diversion agreement is entered into between[ prepared by] Disciplinary Counsel and [signed by an]the attorney[ is not effective until approved by the SPRB. If approved by the SPRB], Disciplinary Counsel shall so notify the complainant[ and the attorney] in writing.

(e) Compliance and Disposition.

(1) If it appears to Disciplinary Counsel that an attorney has failed to comply with the terms of a diversion agreement[ Disciplinary Counsel shall inform the SPRB. If the SPRB]and Disciplinary Counsel determines that the allegation of noncompliance, if true, warrants the termination of the diversion agreement, [the SPRB]Disciplinary Counsel shall provide the attorney an opportunity to be heard, through written submission, concerning the alleged noncompliance. Thereafter, [the SPRB]Disciplinary Counsel shall determine whether to terminate the diversion agreement and, if so, [take action deemed appropriate under]shall then refer the matter to the SPRB for review pursuant to BR 2.6.

(2) If an attorney fulfills the terms of a diversion agreement, Disciplinary Counsel thereafter shall dismiss the grievance[complaint or allegation of misconduct] with written notice to the complainant and the attorney. The dismissal of a grievance[complaint or allegation of misconduct] after diversion shall not be considered a prior disciplinary offense in any subsequent proceeding against the attorney.

Title 3 — Special Proceedings

Rule 3.1 Interlocutory Suspension During Pendency Of Disciplinary Proceedings.

(a) Petition for Interlocutory Suspension. If it appears to the SPRB, upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of its membership, that the continuation of the practice of law by an attorney during the pendency of disciplinary proceedings will, or is likely to, result in substantial harm to any person or the public at large, Disciplinary Counsel shall directly, or through Bar Counsel, petition the Supreme Court on behalf of the Bar for an order suspending the attorney from practice until further order of the court. A petition under this rule may be filed by the Bar at any time after the SPRB has approved the filing of a formal complaint by the Bar against the attorney. At any time after Disciplinary Counsel has determined probable cause exists that an attorney has engaged in misconduct, has evidence sufficient to establish a probable violation of one or more rules of professional conduct or the Bar Act, and reasonably believes that clients or others will suffer immediate and irreparable harm by the continued practice of law by the attorney, Disciplinary Counsel shall petition the Adjudicator for an order for interlocutory suspension of the attorney’s license to practice law pending the outcome of the disciplinary proceeding.

(b) Contents of Petition; Contents of Notice to Answer; Service; Answer by Attorney. A petition for the suspension of an attorney under this rule shall set forth the acts and violations of the rules of professional conduct or statutes submitted by the Bar as grounds for the attorney’s suspension, together with an explanation of why interlocutory suspension is warranted under BR 3.1(a). If a formal complaint has been filed against the attorney, a copy shall be attached. The petition shall have attached as an exhibit a copy of the Bar’s formal complaint against the attorney, if one has been filed by the Bar. The petition may be supported by documents or affidavits. The notice to answer shall provide that an answer to the petition must be filed with the Disciplinary Board Clerk within 14 days of service and that, absent the timely filing of an answer with the Disciplinary Board Clerk, the relief sought can be obtained. Disciplinary Counsel shall file the petition with the Disciplinary Board Clerk and shall serve a copy, along with the notice of answer, on the attorney pursuant to BR 1.8. A copy of the petition, along with a notice to answer, shall be served on the attorney in the same manner as provided by the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure for service of summons. The attorney shall file an answer to the Bar’s petition with the Supreme Court within 14 days of service. The attorney shall mail a copy of the answer to Disciplinary Counsel and Bar Counsel, if any, and file proof of mailing with the court.

(c) Answer by Attorney. The attorney shall file an answer to the Bar’s petition with the Disciplinary Board Clerk within 14 days of service. The attorney shall mail a copy of the answer to Disciplinary Counsel and file proof of mailing with the Disciplinary Board Clerk.

(d) Default; Entry of Order. The failure of the attorney to answer the Bar’s petition within the time provided in BR 3.1(c) constitutes a waiver of the attorney’s right to contest the Bar’s petition, and all factual allegations contained in the petition shall be deemed true. Not earlier than 14 days after service of the petition and in the absence of an answer filed by the attorney named in the petition, the Adjudicator shall review the sufficiency of the petition and, if it establishes a probable violation of one or more rules of professional conduct or the Bar Act, and a reasonable belief that clients or others will suffer immediate or irreparable harm by the continued practice of law by the attorney, shall enter an appropriate interlocutory order suspending the attorney’s license to practice law until further order of the Adjudicator or the Supreme Court.
Setting; hearing on interlocutory suspension; answer filed. Upon the timely filing of the attorney’s answer pursuant to BR 3.1(c), the Adjudicator shall hold a hearing on the Bar’s petition not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after the date the answer is filed. The Disciplinary Board Clerk shall promptly notify Disciplinary Counsel and the attorney named in the petition of the date, time, and location of the hearing. The hearing shall take place consistently with BR 5.3(a), (b), (c), and (d). The hearing date shall be set by the court and notice thereof shall be mailed to Disciplinary Counsel, Bar Counsel and the attorney by the State Court Administrator. At the hearing, the Bar must prove by clear and convincing evidence that one or more rules of professional conduct or provision of the Bar Act has been violated by the attorney named in the petition and that clients or others will suffer immediate or irreparable harm by the continued practice of law by the attorney. Proof that clients or others will suffer immediate or irreparable harm by the continued practice of law by the attorney may include, but is not limited to, establishing within the preceding 12-month period: (1) theft of conversion of funds held by the attorney in any fiduciary capacity, including but not limited to funds that should have been maintained in a lawyer trust account; (2) three or more instances of failure to appear in court on behalf of a client notwithstanding having notice of the setting; or (3) abandoning a practice with no provision of new location or contact information to 3 or more clients. If the attorney, having been notified of the date, time, and location of the hearing, fails to appear, the Adjudicator may enter an order finding the attorney in default, deeming the allegations contained in the petition to be true, proceed on the basis of that default consistent with BR 3.1(d), and enter an appropriate order.

Hearing, default. The failure of the attorney to answer the Bar’s petition within the time granted by this rule for an answer shall constitute a waiver of the attorney’s right to contest the Bar’s petition. The court shall then enter the order provided in BR 3.1(e) either upon the record before it, or at the discretion of the court, after a hearing ordered by the court.

Order of Court; Suspension; Restrictions on Trust Account; Notice to Clients; Custodian; Other Orders. The Adjudicator, after the hearing provided in BR 3.1(c) or upon the record pursuant to BR 3.1(d) or after the hearing provided in 3.1(e) or (d)], shall enter an appropriate order. If the Adjudicator grants the Bar’s petition and interlocutorily suspends the attorney’s license to practice law, the order of suspension shall state an effective date. The suspension shall remain in effect until further order of the Adjudicator or the court. The Adjudicator may enter such other orders as appropriate to protect the interests of the suspended attorney, the suspended attorney’s clients, and the public, including, but not limited to:

Duties upon Suspension. An attorney suspended from practice under this rule shall comply with the requirements of BR 6.3(a) and (b).

Immediate Suspension; Restrictions on Trust Account; Other Orders. The court may enter such other orders as it deems appropriate to protect the interests of the suspended attorney, the suspended attorney’s clients and the public including, but not limited to:

(1) an order for the immediate suspension of the attorney prior to the hearing required by BR 3.1(c), in which event the hearing on the Bar’s petition shall be held no later than 60 days following the attorney’s suspension and the order of the court contemplated by BR 3.1(e) shall be entered no later than 30 days after the hearing. The time limitations in this subsection of the rule shall not apply if the attorney is in default;

(2) an order that when served upon a financial institution, serves as an injunction prohibiting withdrawals from the attorney’s trust account or accounts except in accordance with restrictions set forth in the Adjudicator’s order.

an order directing the attorney to notify current clients and any affected courts of the attorney’s suspension; and to take such steps as are necessary to deliver client property, withdraw from pending matters, and refund any unearned fees.
(3) an order appointing another attorney as custodian to take possession of and inventory the files of the suspended attorney and take such further action as necessary to protect the interests of the suspended attorney’s clients. Any attorney so appointed by the court shall not disclose any information contained in any file without the consent of the affected client, except as is necessary to carry out the order of the Adjudicator[court].

(g) Costs and Expenses. The Adjudicator[court] may direct that the costs and expenses associated with any proceeding under this rule be allowed to the prevailing party. The procedure for the recovery of such costs shall be governed by BR 10.7 as [far as] practicable.

(h) Duties of Attorney. An attorney suspended from practice under this rule shall comply with the requirements of BR 6.3(a) and (b). An attorney whose suspension under this rule exceeds 6 months must comply with BR 8.1 in order to be reinstated. An attorney whose suspension under this rule is 6 months or less must comply with BR 8.2 in order to be reinstated.

(i) Application of Other Rules. Except as specifically provided herein, Title 4, Title 5, and Title 6 of the Rules of Procedure do not apply to proceedings brought pursuant to BR 3.1.

(j) Accelerated Proceedings Following Interlocutory[Temporary] Suspension. When an attorney has been interlocutorily[ temporarily] suspended by order [of the court under] entered pursuant to BR 3.1(f)(e), the related formal complaint filed by the Bar shall thereafter proceed and be determined as an accelerated case, without unnecessary delay. The interlocutory suspension shall expire 45 days after date of entry, unless the SPRB authorizes the filing of a formal complaint against the attorney for one or more acts described in the petition as a basis for seeking the interlocutory petition. Unless extended by stipulation of the Bar and the attorney, and approved by the Adjudicator[court], the further order[ of the court] contemplated by BR 3.1[e][f] shall be entered not later than 270 days following the entry of the order of interlocutory[ temporary] suspension, subject to continuance for an additional period not to exceed 90 days upon motion filed by the Bar, served upon the attorney, and granted by the Adjudicator[Supreme Court].

(k) Supreme Court Review. No later than 14 days after the entry of an order pursuant to BR 3.1(f), Disciplinary Counsel or the attorney who is the subject of an order entered pursuant to BR 3.1(f) may request the Supreme Court to review the Adjudicator’s order, including conducting a de novo review on the record, on an expedited basis. Unless otherwise order by the court, an interlocutory order of suspension, if entered, shall remain in effect until the court issues its decision.

(l) Termination of Interlocutory[Temporary] Suspension. In the event the further order of the court contemplated by BR 3.1[f][e] is not entered within the time provided by BR 3.1[f][h], the order of interlocutory[ temporary] suspension shall automatically terminate without prejudice to any pending or further disciplinary proceeding against the attorney.

Rule 3.2 Mental Incompetency Or Addiction—
Involuntary Transfer To Inactive Membership Status.

(a) Summary Transfer to Inactive Status.

(1) The Supreme Court may summarily order, upon ex parte application by the Bar, that an attorney be placed on inactive membership status until reinstated by the court if the attorney has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally ill or incapacitated.
(2) A copy of the court’s order shall be personally served on the attorney in the same manner as provided by the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure for service of summons and mailed to his or her guardian, conservator and attorney of record in any guardianship or conservatorship proceeding.

Following entry of an order of default, the respondent is not entitled to further notice in the disciplinary proceeding under consideration, except as may be required by these rules or by statute. To: OSB Board of Governors

Sunset the New Lawyer Mentoring Committee.

Background

The New Lawyer Mentoring Committee was established following the Oregon Supreme Court’s adoption of a mandatory mentoring requirement for all new lawyers beginning in 2011.

The committee played an essential role in creating a successful program, and providing staff with ongoing guidance in its first years of operation. Among other actions, the committee helped restructure the curriculum after the first year in response to feedback, and assisted in creation of a Law Firm Certification Policy to streamline administrative requirements for firms with their own structured mentoring programs.

The OSB BOG and staff are continuously working to assure that volunteers are used efficiently, and in service that is both meaningful and rewarding. In the past 24 months, as the NLMP has continued to mature, the advisory committee has played a less active role in continued development. After inviting input from committee members this fall, the volunteers were all in agreement that it is appropriate to sunset the committee at this time.

Notwithstanding this recommendation, bar staff would like to have access to volunteers who are willing to be informal advisors, particularly current or recent participants in the program. This would assure that practicing members can continue to advise on new developments or innovations in the NLMP. Several members of the current committee, and several additional program participants, have volunteered to play this role on an as-needed basis.

The staff is thankful to both the BOG and the bar members who served on this committee, for their invaluable role in creating a new program that will ultimately touch almost every member of the Oregon State Bar.

FERRUA (Lopez-Diaz) 2016-35

Action Requested

The Client Security Fund Committee recommends reimbursement of $12,500 to Marcelino Lopez-Diaz for his loss resulting from the conduct of attorney Franco Ferrura.

Discussion

Background

Mr. Lopez-Diaz hired Mr. Ferrua in January 2013 to represent him in a criminal matter, which originated in Washington County Circuit Court and was removed to the U.S. District Court of Oregon. A family member paid Mr. Ferrua $15,000 to provide representation through trial. Mr. Ferrua deposited the funds in a personal account (rather than a lawyer trust account), and there is no evidence of a written fee agreement as required by RPC 1.5(c)(3) and RPC 1.15-1(c). He did not maintain contemporaneous time records or an accounting of the funds.

In late May 2013, Mr. Ferrua appeared at arraignment and a detention hearing. A five-day jury trial was scheduled for July 23, 2013. On July 16, 2013, Mr. Ferrua moved to extend the trial date for 90 days. The court granted the motion, re-setting the trial date to November 5, 2013, and ordering the parties to report readiness by October 22, 2013.

When Mr. Ferrua failed to either report to the court or file a motion for continuance by mid-day on November 4, 2013, the court removed Mr. Ferrua from representation and appointed Federal Public Defender Thomas Price.

Formal disciplinary proceedings were initiated against Mr. Ferrua, alleging misconduct in representing Mr. Lopez-Diaz. The trial panel found that Mr. Ferrua deposited unearned fees into his personal account, and failed to account for those fees. It determined that from the arraignment on May 28, 2013 until November 4, 2013, Mr. Ferrua visited Mr. Lopez-Diaz once. Further, it found no evidence that Mr. Ferrua had taking any steps to prepare for trial—no pleadings were filed, no witnesses interviewed, no exhibits prepared.

On March 8, 2016, the trial panel found multiple violations of the rules of professional conduct by Mr. Ferrua and suspended him for 180 days. The trial panel also ordered restitution to Mr. Lopez-Diaz in the amount of $12,500.
Analysis

In order to be eligible for reimbursement, the loss must be caused by the lawyer’s dishonest conduct. Generally, a lawyer’s failure to perform or complete a legal engagement is not, in itself, evidence of dishonest conduct. CSF Rule 2.2.2. However, reimbursement of a legal fee will be allowed if the services the lawyer actually provided were minimal or insignificant. CSF Rule 2.2.3.

The CSF Committee found that Mr. Lopez-Diaz loss was caused by the dishonest conduct of Mr. Ferrua who promised to provide legal services in exchange for the advance payment of a legal fee. Mr. Ferrua deposited the money into his personal account, and the extent of his legal services, if any, were minimal or insignificant. Therefore, the CSF Committee recommends that Mr. Lopez-Diaz be reimbursed $12,500, the full amount of his claim.

     MILSTEIN (Connolly) 2016-31

Action Requested

The Client Security Fund Committee recommends reimbursement of $18,170 to Joseph A. Connolly, III for his loss resulting from the conduct of attorney Jeffrey S. Milstein.

Discussion

Background

In January 2014, Joe Connolly retained Jeffrey Milstein to represent him in his marital dissolution and with related criminal charges. The initial fee agreement provided for an hourly rate of $50. A subsequent retainer agreement provided for an hourly rate of $80. Mr. Milstein told Mr. Connolly by email that he didn’t “see any way for this [divorce] case to go beyond $2,500 total….I am also going to help Joe [with defending his interests in] the misdemeanor charge.” Ms. Connolly’s mother paid an initial $1,000 retainer and additional installment payments toward attorney fees, for a total payment of $3,000.

A settlement was reached in the dissolution matter in May 2014, which provided that Mr. Connolly’s wife would pay him $18,170. On July 24, 2014, Mr. Milstein picked up the $18,170 settlement check, made payable solely to Mr. Connolly, from the wife’s lawyer. Mr. Milstein instructed Mr. Connolly to meet him at the bank. At the bank, Mr. Milstein told Mr. Connolly that he was required to run the settlement check through his trust account. Mr. Connolly endorsed it “under protest.” Mr. Milstein then presented Mr. Connolly with an itemized bill showing that Mr. Connolly owed Mr. Milstein $16,525. Mr. Connolly disputed the bill and made demand for the full amount settlement check. Rather than refund any portion of the settlement or attempt to resolve the dispute, Mr. Milstein withdrew all of the money from the trust account and used it pay his business expenses.

Disciplinary proceedings were initiated against Mr. Milstein as a result of his conduct in appropriating Mr. Connolly’s settlement proceeds. One of the violations asserted in the formal

1 The Court records reflect that Mr. Connolly was represented by court-appointed counsel in defense of the criminal charges. Mr. Milstein did appear at a couple of disposition review hearings in the spring of 2014 in relation to possible revocation of Mr. Connolly’s probation. He did not, however, represent Mr. Connolly in the probation revocation hearing; Mr. Connolly was appointed counsel and Mr. Milstein withdrew from the case on September 10, 2014.
complaint was conversion of funds. Mr. Milstein submitted a Form B resignation, which was accepted by the Oregon Supreme Court on November 3, 2016.

Analysis

In order to be eligible for reimbursement, the loss must be caused by the lawyer’s dishonest conduct. CSF Rule 2.2. In addition, reimbursement of a legal fee will be allowed only if the legal services that the lawyer actually provided were, in the Committee’s judgment, minimal or insignificant. CSF Rule 2.2.3.

The CSF Committee had no trouble concluding that Mr. Milstein converted Mr. Connolly’s settlement check to his own use. The more difficult question was whether Mr. Milstein performed legal services for Mr. Connolly that were more than “minimal or insignificant.” Mr. Milstein contends that he performed significant legal services beyond that for which Mr. Connolly paid; Mr. Connolly disagrees.

Both Mr. Milstein and Mr. Connolly have credibility issues. Mr. Connolly has a history of drug abuse and currently has a mental impairment that affects his recall. Mr. Milstein is currently facing felony heroin and meth possession charges that arose during Mr. Milstein’s representation of Mr. Connolly. The documents that Mr. Milstein submitted to support his legal fees include highly suspect entries, including charges for non-legal work and charges that appear clearly excessive on their face. The CSF investigator found those documents wholly unpersuasive and unreliable to support Mr. Milstein’s claim for fees above the original $3,000 paid by Mr. Connolly. Finally, the hourly rate agreed to is at issue. In the end, the CSF Committee gave the benefit of the doubt to Mr. Connolly and recommended payment of the full settlement check of $18,170.

Discussion

Summary of Facts

Mr. Sansome retained Mr. Hawes on March 17, 2015 to represent him in a civil case against various government entities for civil rights violations and multiple other claims arising from his arrest, prosecution, 9-day jury trial, and subsequent acquittal on multiple counts of sex abuse.

The fee agreement reflects that Mr. Sansome paid $12,500 for legal services that were to be billed at $125 per hour together with a hybrid contingent and pro bono agreement for additional legal services. The agreement provides that Mr. Hawes would place the money in his trust account, but he did not do so. Instead, he deposited the funds into his business account on March 17, 2015. The funds were depleted by May 8, 2015.

Although Hawes produced no tangible work in exchange for the $12,500 he collected from Mr. Sansome, his itemized invoice reflects over 125 hours on Mr. Sansome’s case over a 3 ½ month period, including reviewing the volumes of records from the criminal investigation and trial and researching applicable law. Without tangible work product, it is difficult to test the credibility of Mr. Hawes’ claim that he did the work. However, the hours claimed are not unreasonable given the complexity and novelty of some of the claims.

CSF Committee Analysis and Applicant’s Appeal

In order for a loss to be eligible for CSF reimbursement, it must result from a lawyer’s dishonest conduct. CSF Rule 2.2.1. In a loss resulting from a lawyer’s refusal or failure to refund an unearned legal fee, “dishonest conduct” includes a lawyer’s wrongful failure to maintain the advance payment in a lawyer trust account until earned. CSF Rule 2.2.1. Reimbursement of a legal fee will only be allowed, however, if the services the lawyer actually provided were minimal or insignificant. CSF Rule 2.2.3.

The CSF Committee determined that by depositing the $12,500 into a regular checking account, rather than into a lawyer trust account, Mr. Hawes effectively dispersed those funds to himself prior to earning them, thereby meeting the definition of dishonest conduct in Rule 2.2.1. The Committee also found, however, that Mr. Hawes performed significant legal services that would account for the total amount of the retainer. Therefore, the Committee denied reimbursement.

Mr. Sansome takes issue with the Committee’s decision, noting that he never received any product for the work that Mr. Hawes alleges he performed. It may be worth noting that formal disciplinary proceeding were recently approved against Mr. Hawes for his conduct in representing Mr. Sansome; the charges are failure to deposit the funds in his trust account and failure to respond to the bar’s inquiries. They do not include dishonesty or charging a clearly excessive fee.

Re: CSF Claim No. 2016-30 MCCART (Mandelberg) Request for BOG Review

Action Requested

Consider claimant’s request for BOG review of the CSF Committee’s decision to deny his claim.

Discussion

Summary of Facts

Arthur Mandelberg retained Rachel Kosmal McCart in December 2011 to pursue a claim for damages resulting from purchasing a lame horse. Mr. Mandelberg paid $60,000 for a show horse for his teenage daughter. After buying the horse, he learned that the horse was lame, and alleged that defendants drugged the horse to hide its physical defects. It was an extremely contentious, lengthy, and expensive lawsuit involving seven defendants and claims for damages exceeding $1 million. Claims against four of the defendants were settled in August and September 2015, and Ms. McCart withdrew from the representation shortly thereafter. Mr. Mandelberg paid somewhere in the neighborhood of $400,000 to $500,000 in attorney fees.

Mr. Mandelberg filed his CSF claim in June 2016, alleging numerous instances of overbilling and efforts to maximize her fees at his expense.

CSF Committee Analysis

In order for a loss to be eligible for CSF reimbursement, it must result from a lawyer’s dishonest conduct. CSF Rule 2.2.1. Generally, a lawyer’s failure to perform or complete a legal engagement is not, in itself, evidence of dishonest conduct. CSF Rule 2.2.2. Further, reimbursement of a legal fee will be allowed if the services the lawyer actually provided were minimal or insignificant. CSF Rule 2.2.3.

The CSF Committee found no evidence of dishonest conduct by Ms. McCart. Instead, they viewed this claim as a dispute over fees, born from an unsatisfactory result in the underlying litigation.

Re: CSF Award Recommended for Payment
GERBER (Shorb) 2016-40

Action Requested

The Client Security Fund Committee recommends reimbursement of $5000 to Charles Ray Shorb for his loss resulting from the conduct of attorney Susan Gerber.

Discussion

Background

Susan Gerber was admitted to the Oregon State Bar in 1999. Beginning sometime in 2010, Ms. Gerber practiced in Ontario, Oregon, first with the Rader Stoddard Perez firm, then in a brief partnership with Vicki Vernon in early 2014, and by March 2014 on her own. She represented clients in post-conviction relief cases and criminal appeals. In the spring and summer of 2014, the bar received several complaints from Ms. Gerber’s clients and a Malheur County judge alleging that Gerber was missing court dates and not attending to her clients’ matters. In response to the bar’s investigation, Gerber explained that she had become overwhelmed by her workload starting in December 2013. She also attributed her conduct to her addiction to prescription pain medication following knee surgery. In October 2014, Gerber stipulated to an involuntary transfer to inactive status on the ground that her addiction disabled her from “assisting and cooperating with her attorney and from participating in her defense” of disciplinary matters.

Charles Ray Shorb

Mr. Shorb was found guilty of one count of Rape in the First Degree and two counts of Sexual Abuse in the First Degree on January 30, 2008. Bear Wilner-Nugent represented Mr. Shorb in his first post-conviction relief case, which was denied. Mr. Wilner-Nugent filed an appeal. By mid-August 2013, however, Mr. Shorb was dissatisfied with Mr. Wilner-Nugent’s services and notified him that he was retaining Ms. Gerber.

On September 5, 2013, Mr. Shorb hired Ms. Gerber to file a second PCR petition. He paid her $5,000 for her services. An unsigned, undated fee agreement provides the fee is earned upon receipt. It also provides that if the client discharges the attorney, the client may be entitled to a refund if the services for which the fee was paid are not completed.
Time records indicate that Ms. Gerber spent 3.4 hours on the case over the course of a couple of months. She never initiated a second PCR or any other proceeding on Mr. Shorb’s behalf. Mr. Shorb ultimately fired Ms. Gerber and contacted Mr. Wilner-Nugent again in August or September 2014 for further assistance.

Analysis

In order to be eligible for reimbursement, the loss must be caused by the lawyer’s dishonest conduct. In a loss resulting from a lawyer’s refusal or failure to refund an unearned legal fee, “dishonest conduct” includes 1) a lawyer’s misrepresentation or false promise to provide legal services to a client in exchange for advance payment of a legal fee, or 2) a lawyer’s wrongful failure to maintain the advance payment in a lawyer trust account until earned. CSF Rule 2.2.1. Generally, a lawyer’s failure to perform or complete a legal engagement is not, in itself, evidence of dishonest conduct. CSF Rule 2.2.2. Further, reimbursement of a legal fee will be allowed only if the services the lawyer actually provided were minimal or insignificant. CSF Rule 2.2.3.

The CSF Committee concluded that Ms. Gerber’s conduct was dishonest and that the services she provided were minimal or insignificant. Therefore, the Committee recommends reimbursement of the full amount of Mr. Shorb’s claim.

(b) A lawyer shall not solicit professional employment by any means written, recorded or electronic communication or by in-person, telephone or real-time electronic contact even when not otherwise prohibited by paragraph (a), if:

Re: Proposed Amendment to OSB Formal Ethics Op No 2005-110 Conflicts of Interest, Former Clients: Former Client as Adverse Witness

Issue

Decide whether to adopt the proposed amendment to OSB Formal Ethics Op No 2005-110 Conflicts of Interest, Former Clients: Former Client as Adverse Witness.

Options

1. Adopt the proposed amended formal ethics opinion.
2. Decline to adopt the proposed amended formal ethics opinion.

Discussion

Lawyers have duties of confidentiality and loyalty to former clients that survive well after the representation ends. These duties are reflected in Oregon RPC 1.6 and 1.9. One exception is set forth in RPC 1.9(c), which provides that a lawyer may not use information relating to the representation of client except “when the information has become generally known.”

A frequently asked question on the Ethics Hotline is whether a former client’s criminal conviction would be considered information that is “generally known.” A typical scenario looks something like this: Lawyer represents Defendant A in a felony criminal matter, which results in a conviction. The representation ends. Later, Lawyer represents Defendant B in criminal charges unrelated to the former representation. Lawyer soon learns, however, that the prosecutor is going to call former client (Defendant A) to testify against new client (Defendant B). Lawyer would like to use the felony conviction to impeach Defendant A, but is concerned about her continuing obligations of loyalty and confidentiality to Defendant A.

In its current iteration, OSB Formal Op No 2005-110 sets forth a lawyer’s duties under Oregon RPC 1.6 and 1.9. The LEC proposal expands on the current analysis with a discussion of what information might be considered “generally known” that could be used against a former client under RPC 1.9(c)(1).

Staff recommends adoption of the proposed amended opinion.
