

OREGON STATE BAR LEADERSHIP COLLEGE

The mission of the Oregon State Bar Leadership College is to recruit, train and retain emerging leaders for the legal community and the Oregon State Bar. The Leadership College Advisory Board (LCAB) is responsible for the overall mission and goals of the College by developing program curriculum, participating in the College sessions, overseeing Fellows recruitment and evaluating results.

The LCAB recruits the College participants or Fellows, ensuring that the College reflects the diversity of the membership of the bar as to geographic location, gender, ethnicity, area of practice and leadership experience. Fellows commit to a one-year program consisting of five three-hour sessions. This year the curriculum has focused on general leadership development, diversity, communication skills and professionalism. The Leadership College is available at no cost to the Fellows.

The 21 Fellows participating in the 2006 College were selected from 49 applicants and range in age from 30-66 years. A budget of $28,000 was anticipated for 2006. As of the end of July, 2006 a total of $8375 has been spent. By the end of 2006, the total costs are anticipated to be well below the budgeted amount. The Leadership College costs come out of the Member Services Department budget.

Selection Criteria for Leadership College Fellows

- Candidates have demonstrated leadership potential in bar-related groups, sections or committees or in community or service activities.
- Candidates commit to attend and participate fully in each session.
- Candidates are committed to promoting the values of the bar by exhibiting leadership, excellence and integrity.
- Candidates represent a variety of practice types and geographic regions.
