The Oregon State Bar is dedicated to providing a harassment-free experience for everyone at bar-sponsored events, meetings and functions. OSB seeks to provide an environment in which diverse attendees may learn, network and enjoy the company of colleagues in a professional atmosphere. The bar does not tolerate harassment of members or attendees at bar-sponsored events in any form.

Scope of Policy:

This Event Anti-Harassment Policy applies to all attendees at bar-sponsored meetings and events, including bar members, bar leaders, event participants, guests, contractors, and exhibitors. For purposes of this policy, meetings and events organized by the Board of Governors, CLE Seminars, bar sections, bar committees, or the Oregon New Lawyers Division are considered bar-sponsored.
This policy also applies to bar leaders who attend community, local bar, or specialty bar events as an official representative of the bar, even if the event is not bar-sponsored. For purposes of this policy, bar leaders include officers and members of the Board of Governors.

Reporting an Incident:

If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns related to this policy, please contact an OSB staff member immediately.

OSB staff are available to help attendees contact venue security or local law enforcement, or accompany individuals to a safe space, as appropriate based on the specific circumstances.

Response:

Once received by a bar staff member, all reports of harassment are to be directed immediately to the bar staff liaison on site and to be shared with the OSB’s Chief Executive Officer. Bar staff may consult with and engage other bar staff and legal counsel as appropriate. Event security and/or local law enforcement may be involved, as appropriate based on the specific circumstances.

In response to a report of harassment, bar staff may take any interim action deemed appropriate under the circumstances to address the immediate behavior, which may range from a verbal caution to ejection from an event. Attendees asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. After investigation, the bar may take reasonable and appropriate action, dependent upon the circumstances, to prevent a reoccurrence of the harassment.

The OSB treats all complaints seriously by conducting a prompt investigation. If a complaint involves a member of the OSB Board of Governors, the OSB’s Chief Executive Officer or OSB General Counsel may enlist the assistance of a third-party investigator to investigate the complaint, when appropriate.

The bar prohibits retaliation against individuals who come forward in good faith with complaints under this policy. Complaints of retaliation may also be directed to any OSB staff member, the OSB staff liaison, or the OSB General Counsel.

(Note: Any bar employee who is subject to or is aware of workplace harassment or intimidation should report the information immediately to the employee’s manager or director, the Director of Human Resources, the Chief Executive Officer, or any other manager or director with whom the employee feels comfortable communicating. There is no need to observe any particular chain of command.)
