RULE 1.0 TERMINOLOGY

(a) "Belief" or "believes" denotes that the person involved actually supposes the fact in question to be true. A person's belief may be inferred from circumstances.

(b) "Confirmed in writing," when used in reference to the informed consent of a person, denotes informed consent that is given in writing by the person or a writing that an LP promptly transmits to the person confirming an oral informed consent. See paragraph (g) for the definition of "informed consent." If it is not feasible to obtain or transmit the writing at the time the person gives informed consent, then the LP must obtain or transmit it within a reasonable time thereafter.

(c) "Electronic communication" includes but is not limited to messages sent to newsgroups, listservs and bulletin boards; messages sent via electronic mail; and real time interactive communications such as conversations in internet chat groups and conference areas and video conferencing.

(d) "Firm" or "LP firm" denotes an LP, LPs, a lawyer, lawyers, or combination thereof in a partnership, professional corporation, sole proprietorship or other association authorized to practice law or authorized to practice only within the scope of practice of an LP license; or LPs employed in a private or public legal aid organization, a legal services organization or the legal department of a corporation or other public or private organization. Any other LP, including an office sharer or an LP working for or with a firm on a limited basis, is not a member of a firm absent indicia sufficient to establish a de facto firm among the LPs involved.

(e) "Fraud" or "fraudulent" denotes conduct that is fraudulent under the substantive or procedural law of the applicable jurisdiction and has a purpose to deceive.

(f) "Information relating to the representation of a client" denotes both information protected by the attorney-client privilege or LP-client privilege under applicable law, and other information gained in a current or former professional relationship that the client has requested be held inviolate or the disclosure of which would be embarrassing or would be likely to be detrimental to the client.

(g) "Informed consent" denotes the agreement by a person to a proposed course of conduct after the LP has communicated adequate information and explanation about the material risks of and reasonably available alternatives to the proposed course of conduct. When informed consent is required by these Rules to be confirmed in writing or to be given in a writing signed by the client, the LP shall give and the writing shall reflect a recommendation that the client seek independent legal advice to determine if consent should be given.

(h) "Knowingly," "known," or "knows" denotes actual knowledge of the fact in question, except that for purposes of determining an LP's knowledge of the existence of a conflict of interest, all facts which the LP knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care should have known, will be attributed to the LP. A person's knowledge may be inferred from circumstances.

(i) "Matter" includes any judicial or other proceeding, application, request for a ruling or other determination, contract, claim, controversy, investigation, charge, accusation, arrest or other particular matter involving a specific party or parties; and any other matter covered by the conflict of interest rules of a government agency.

(j) "Partner" denotes a member of a partnership, a shareholder in an LP firm organized as a professional corporation, or a member of an association authorized to practice as LPs.

(k) "Reasonable" or "reasonably" when used in relation to conduct by an LP denotes the conduct of a reasonably prudent and competent LP.

(l) "Reasonable belief" or "reasonably believes" when used in reference to an LP denotes that the LP believes the matter in question and that the circumstances are such that the belief is reasonable.

(m) "Reasonably should know" when used in reference to an LP denotes that an LP of reasonable prudence and competence would ascertain the matter in question.

(n) "Screened" denotes the isolation of an LP from any participation in a matter through the timely imposition of procedures within a firm that are reasonably adequate under the circumstances to protect information that the isolated LP is obligated to protect under these Rules or other law.

(o) "Substantial" when used in reference to degree or extent denotes a material matter of clear and weighty importance.

(p) "Tribunal" denotes a court, an arbitrator in a binding arbitration proceeding or a legislative body, administrative agency or other body acting in an adjudicative capacity. A legislative body, administrative agency or other body acts in an adjudicative capacity when a neutral official, after the presentation of evidence or legal argument by a party or parties, will render a binding legal judgment directly affecting a party's interests in a particular matter.

(q) "Writing" or "written" denotes a tangible or electronic record of a communication or representation, including handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostatting, photography, audio or videorecording and electronic communications. A "signed" writing includes an electronic sound, symbol or process attached to or logically associated with a writing and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the writing.

LP TERMINOLOGY

(r) "Licensed Paralegal" or "LP" is an individual licensed by the State of Oregon as an associate member of the Oregon State Bar who is authorized under the law to perform limited legal services within a defined scope of practice as set forth in the Rules for Admission for LPs.

(s) "Scope of practice" denotes the defined limited legal services an LP may provide as set forth within the Rules for Admissions for LPs.

CLIENT-LP RELATIONSHIP

RULE 1.1 COMPETENCE

An LP shall provide competent representation to a client. Competent representation requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness and preparation reasonably necessary for the representation.

Defined Terms (see Rule 1.0):

"Reasonably"

RULE 1.2 SCOPE OF REPRESENTATION AND ALLOCATION OF AUTHORITY BETWEEN CLIENT AND LP

(a) Subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), an LP shall abide by a client's decisions concerning the objectives of representation and, as required by Rule 1.4, shall consult with the client as to the means by which they are to be pursued. An LP may take such action on behalf of the client as is impliedly authorized to carry out the representation. An LP shall abide by a client's decision whether to settle a matter.

(b) An LP may further limit the scope of the representation if the limitation is reasonable under the circumstances and the client gives informed consent.

(c) An LP shall not counsel a client to engage, or assist a client, in conduct that the LP knows is illegal or fraudulent, but an LP may discuss the legal consequences of any proposed course of conduct with a client and may counsel or assist a client to make a good faith effort to determine the validity, scope, meaning or application of the law within LP's scope of practice.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), an LP may counsel and assist a client regarding Oregon's marijuana-related laws as long as such counsel is within the LP's scope of practice. In the event Oregon law conflicts with federal or tribal law, the LP shall also refer the client to an attorney for advice regarding related federal and tribal law and policy.

Defined Terms (see Rule 1.0):

"Fraudulent"
"Informed consent"
"Knows"
"Matter"
"Reasonable"
"Scope of practice"

RULE 1.3 DILIGENCE

An LP shall not neglect a legal matter entrusted to the LP.

"Matter"

RULE 1.4 COMMUNICATION

(a) An LP shall keep a client reasonably informed about the status of a matter and promptly comply with reasonable requests for information.

(b) An LP shall explain a matter to the extent reasonably necessary to permit the client to make informed decisions regarding the representation.

Defined Terms (see Rule 1.0):

"Knows"
"Reasonable"
"Reasonably"

RULE 1.5 FEES

(a) An LP shall not enter into an agreement for, charge or collect an illegal or clearly excessive fee or a clearly excessive amount for expenses.

(b) A fee is clearly excessive when, after a review of the facts, a lawyer or LP of ordinary prudence would be left with a definite and firm conviction that the fee is in excess of a reasonable fee. Factors to be considered as guides in determining the reasonableness of a fee include the following:

- (1) the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- (2) the likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the LP;
- (3) the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
- (4) the amount involved and the results obtained;
- (5) the time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
- (6) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
- (7) the experience, reputation, and ability of the LP or LPs performing the services;
- (8) [Reserved]

(c) An LP shall not enter into an arrangement for, charge or collect:

(1) any fee in a domestic relations matter, the payment or amount of which is contingent upon the securing of a divorce or upon the amount of spousal or child support or a property settlement;

(2) [Reserved]

(3) a fee denominated as "earned on receipt," "nonrefundable" or in similar terms unless it is pursuant to a written agreement signed by the client which explains that:

(i) the funds will not be deposited into the LP's trust account, and

(ii) the client may discharge the LP at any time and in that event may be entitled to a refund of all or part of the fee if the services for which the fee was paid are not completed.

(d) A division of a fee between LPs and other LPs or lawyers who are not in the same firm may be made only if:

(1) the client gives informed consent to the fact that there will be a division of fees, and

(2) the total fee of the LPs and lawyers for all legal services they rendered the client is not clearly excessive.

(e) Paragraph (d) does not prohibit payments to a former firm member pursuant to a separation or retirement agreement, or payments to a selling LP for the sale of an LP practice pursuant to Rule 1.17.

(f) Before providing any services, an LP must provide the client with a written agreement, signed by the client(s), that:

(1) states the purpose for which the LP has been retained;

(2) identifies the services to be performed;

(3) identifies the rate or fee for the services to be performed and whether and to what extent the client will be responsible for any costs, expenses or disbursements in the course of the representation;

(4) includes a statement printed in 14-point boldface type that the LP is not an attorney and is limited to practice in the scope of practice in which the LP is licensed;

(5) includes a provision stating that the client may report complaints relating to an LP or the unauthorized practice of law to the Client Assistance Office of the Oregon State Bar, including a toll-free number and Internet website.

RULE 1.6 CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

(a) An LP shall not reveal information relating to the representation of a client unless the client gives informed consent, the disclosure is impliedly authorized in order to carry out the representation or the disclosure is permitted by paragraph (b).

(b) An LP may reveal information relating to the representation of a client to the extent the LP reasonably believes necessary:

(1) to disclose the intention of the LP's client to commit a crime and the information necessary to prevent the crime;

(2) to prevent reasonably certain death or substantial bodily harm;

(3) to secure legal advice about the LP's compliance with these Rules;

(4) to establish a claim or defense on behalf of the LP in a controversy between the LP and the client, to establish a defense to a criminal charge or civil claim against the LP based upon conduct in which the client was involved, or to respond to allegations in any proceeding concerning the LP's representation of the client;

(5) to comply with other law, court order, or as permitted by these Rules; or

(6) in connection with the sale of an LP practice under Rule 1.17 or to detect and resolve conflicts of interest arising from the LP's change of employment or from changes in the composition or ownership of a firm. In those circumstances, an LP may disclose with respect to each affected client the client's identity, the identities of any adverse parties, the nature and extent of the legal services involved, and fee and payment information, but only if the information revealed would not compromise the LP-client privilege or otherwise prejudice any of the clients. The lawyer or LP or lawyers or LPs receiving the information shall have the same responsibilities as the disclosing LP to preserve the information regardless of the outcome of the contemplated transaction.

(7) to comply with the terms of a diversion agreement, probation, conditional reinstatement or conditional admission pursuant to BR 2.10, BR 6.2, BR 8.7 or Rule for Admission Rule 6.15. A lawyer or LP serving as a monitor of an LP on diversion, probation, conditional reinstatement or conditional admission shall have the same responsibilities as the monitored LP to preserve information relating to the representation of the monitored LP's clients, except to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the monitoring lawyer's responsibilities under the terms of the diversion, probation, conditional reinstatement or conditional admission and in any proceeding relating thereto.

(c) An LP shall make reasonable efforts to prevent the inadvertent or unauthorized disclosure of, or unauthorized access to, information relating to the representation of a client.

RULE 1.7 CONFLICT OF INTEREST: CURRENT CLIENTS

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), an LP shall not represent a client if the representation involves a current conflict of interest. A current conflict of interest exists if:

(1) the representation of one client will be directly adverse to another client;

(2) there is a significant risk that the representation of one or more clients will be materially limited by the LP's responsibilities to another client, a former client or a third person or by a personal interest of the LP; or

(3) the LP is related to another lawyer or LP, as parent, child, sibling, spouse or domestic partner, in a matter adverse to a person whom the LP knows is represented by the other lawyer or LP in the same matter.

(b) Notwithstanding the existence of a current conflict of interest under paragraph (a), an LP may represent a client if:

(1) the LP reasonably believes that the LP will be able to provide competent and diligent representation to each affected client;

(2) the representation is not prohibited by law;

(3) the representation does not obligate the LP to contend for something on behalf of one client that the LP has a duty to oppose on behalf of another client; and

(4) each affected client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing.

Defined Terms (see Rule 1.0):

"Believes"

"Confirmed in writing"

"Informed consent"

RULE 1.8 CONFLICT OF INTEREST: CURRENT CLIENTS: SPECIFIC RULES

(a) An LP shall not enter into a business transaction with a client or knowingly acquire an ownership, possessory, security or other pecuniary interest adverse to a client unless:

(1) the transaction and terms on which the LP acquires the interest are fair and reasonable to the client and are fully disclosed and transmitted in writing in a manner that can be reasonably understood by the client;

(2) the client is advised in writing of the desirability of seeking and is given a reasonable opportunity to seek the advice of independent legal counsel on the transaction; and

(3) the client gives informed consent, in a writing signed by the client, to the essential terms of the transaction and the LP's role in the transaction, including whether the LP is representing the client in the transaction.

(b) An LP shall not use information relating to representation of a client to the disadvantage of the client unless the client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing, except as permitted or required under these Rules.

(c) An LP shall not solicit any substantial gift from a client, including a testamentary gift, or prepare on behalf of a client an instrument giving the LP or a person related to the LP any substantial gift, unless the LP or other recipient of the gift is related to the client. For purposes of this paragraph, related persons include a spouse, domestic partner, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or individual with whom the LP or the client maintains a close familial relationship.

(d) Prior to the conclusion of representation of a client, an LP shall not make or negotiate an agreement giving the LP literary or media rights to a portrayal or account based in substantial part on information relating to the representation.

(e) An LP shall not provide financial assistance to a client in connection with pending or contemplated litigation, except that:

(1) [Reserved]

(2) an LP representing an indigent client may pay court costs and expenses of litigation on behalf of the client.

(f) An LP shall not accept compensation for representing a client from one other than the client unless:

(1) the client gives informed consent;

(2) there is no interference with the LP's independence of professional judgment or with the client-LP relationship; and

(3) information related to the representation of a client is protected as required by Rule 1.6.

(g) An LP who represents two or more clients shall not participate in making an aggregate settlement of the claims of or against the clients, unless each client gives informed consent, in a writing signed by the client. The LP's disclosure shall include the existence and nature of all the claims involved and of the participation of each person in the settlement.

(h) An LP shall not:

(1) make an agreement prospectively limiting the LP's liability to a client for malpractice unless the client is independently represented in making the agreement;

(2) settle a claim or potential claim for such liability with an unrepresented client or former client unless that person is advised in writing of the desirability of seeking and is given a reasonable opportunity to seek the advice of independent legal counsel in connection therewith;

(3) enter into any agreement with a client regarding arbitration of malpractice claims without informed consent, in a writing signed by the client; or

(4) enter into an agreement with a client or former client limiting or purporting to limit the right of the client or former client to file or to pursue any complaint before the Oregon State Bar.

(i) An LP shall not acquire a proprietary interest in the cause of action or subject matter of litigation the LP is conducting for a client, except that the LP may:

(1) acquire a lien authorized by law to secure the LP's fee or expenses.

(2) [Reserved]

(j) An LP shall not have sexual relations with a current client of the LP unless a consensual sexual relationship existed between them before the client-LP relationship commenced; or have sexual relations with a representative of a current client of the LP if the sexual relations would, or would likely, damage or prejudice the client in the representation. For purposes of this rule:

(1) "sexual relations" means sexual intercourse or any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person or causing such person to touch the sexual or other intimate parts of the LP for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either party; and

(2) "LP" means any LP who assists in the representation of the client, but does not include other firm members who provide no such assistance.

(k) While LPs are associated in a firm, a prohibition in the foregoing paragraphs (a) through (i) that applies to any one of them shall apply to all of them.

RULE 1.9 DUTIES TO FORMER CLIENTS

- (a) An LP who has formerly represented a client in a matter shall not thereafter represent another person in the same or a substantially related matter in which that person's interests are materially adverse to the interests of the former client unless each affected client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing.
- (b) An LP shall not knowingly represent a person in the same or a substantially related matter in which a firm with which the LP formerly was associated had previously represented a client:
- (1) whose interests are materially adverse to that person; and
 - (2) about whom the LP had acquired information protected by Rules 1.6 and 1.9(c) that is material to the matter, unless each affected client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing.
- (c) An LP who has formerly represented a client in a matter or whose present or former firm has formerly represented a client in a matter shall not thereafter:
- (1) use information relating to the representation to the disadvantage of the former client except as these Rules would permit or require with respect to a client, or when the information has become generally known; or
 - (2) reveal information relating to the representation except as these Rules would permit or require with respect to a client.
- (d) For purposes of this rule, matters are “substantially related” if (1) the LP’s representation of the current client will injure or damage the former client in connection with the same transaction or legal dispute in which the LP previously represented the former client; or (2) there is a substantial risk that confidential factual information as would normally have been obtained in the prior representation of the former client would materially advance the current client’s position in the subsequent matter.

RULE 1.10 IMPUTATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST; SCREENING

- (a) While LPs or lawyers are associated in a firm, none of them shall knowingly represent a client when any one of them practicing alone would be prohibited from doing so by Rules 1.7 or 1.9, unless the prohibition is based on a personal interest of the prohibited LP or lawyer, or on Rule 1.7(a)(3) and does not present a significant risk of materially limiting the representation of the client by the remaining LPs or lawyers in the firm.
- (b) When an LP has terminated an association with a firm, the firm is not prohibited from thereafter representing a person with interests materially adverse to those of a client represented by the formerly associated LP and not currently represented by the firm, unless:
- (1) the matter is the same or substantially related to that in which the formerly associated LP represented the client; and
 - (2) any LP or lawyer remaining in the firm has information protected by Rules 1.6 and 1.9(c) that is material to the matter.
- (c) When an LP becomes associated with a firm, no LP or lawyer associated in the firm shall knowingly represent a person in a matter in which that LP is disqualified under Rule 1.9, unless the personally disqualified LP is promptly screened from any form of participation or representation in the matter and written notice of the screening procedures employed is promptly given to any affected former client.
- (d) A disqualification prescribed by this rule may be waived by the affected clients under the conditions stated in Rule 1.7.
- (e) The disqualification of LPs associated in a firm with former or current government lawyers or LPs is governed by Rule 1.11.

RULE 1.11 SPECIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST FOR FORMER AND CURRENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

(a) Except as Rule 1.12, Rule 6.5, or law may otherwise expressly permit, an LP who has formerly served as a public officer or employee of the government:

- (1) is subject to Rule 1.9 (c); and
- (2) shall not otherwise represent a client in connection with a matter in which the LP participated personally and substantially as a public officer or employee, unless the appropriate government agency gives its informed consent, confirmed in writing, to the representation.

(b) When an LP is disqualified from representation under paragraph (a), no LP or lawyer in a firm with which that LP is associated may knowingly undertake or continue representation in such a matter unless:

- (1) the disqualified LP is timely screened from any participation in the matter substantially in accordance with the procedures set forth in Rule 1.10(c); and
- (2) written notice is promptly given to the appropriate government agency to enable it to ascertain compliance with the provisions of this rule.

(c) Except as law may otherwise expressly permit, an LP having information that the LP knows is confidential government information about a person acquired when the LP was a public officer or employee, may not represent a private client whose interests are adverse to that person in a matter in which the information could be used to the material disadvantage of that person. As used in this Rule, the term "confidential government information" means information that has been obtained under governmental authority and which, at the time this Rule is applied, the government is prohibited by law from disclosing to the public or has a legal privilege not to disclose and which is not otherwise available to the public. A firm with which that LP is associated may undertake or continue representation in the matter only if the disqualified LP is timely screened from any participation in the matter substantially in accordance with the procedures set forth in Rule 1.10(c).

(d) Except as law may otherwise expressly permit, an LP currently serving as a public officer or employee:

- (1) is subject to Rules 1.7 and 1.9; and
- (2) shall not:

 - (iv) either while in office or after leaving office use information the LP knows is confidential government information obtained while a public official to represent a private client.
 - (v) participate in a matter in which the LP participated personally and substantially while in private practice or nongovernmental employment, unless the LP's former client and the appropriate government agency give informed consent, confirmed in writing; or
 - (vi) negotiate for private employment with any person who is involved as a party, an LP, or as lawyer for a party in a matter in which the LP is participating personally and substantially, except that an LP serving as a law clerk or staff LP to or otherwise assisting in the official duties of a judge, other adjudicative officer or arbitrator may negotiate for private employment as permitted by Rule 1.12(b) and subject to the conditions stated in Rule 1.12(b).

(e) Notwithstanding any Rule of Professional Conduct, and consistent with the "debate" clause, Article IV, section 9, of the Oregon Constitution, or the "speech or debate" clause, Article I, section 6, of the United States Constitution, an LP-legislator shall not be subject to discipline for words uttered in debate in either house of the Oregon Legislative Assembly or for any speech or debate in either house of the United States Congress.

(f) A member of an LP-legislator's firm shall not be subject to discipline for representing a client in any claim against the State of Oregon provided:

(b) An LP shall not negotiate for employment with any person who is involved as a party or as lawyer or LP for a party in a matter in which the LP is participating personally and substantially as a judge or other adjudicative officer or as an arbitrator, mediator or other third-party neutral. An LP serving as a law clerk or staff lawyer to or otherwise assisting in the official duties of a judge or other adjudicative officer may negotiate for employment with a party or lawyer or LP involved in a matter in which the clerk is participating personally and substantially, but only after the LP has notified the judge or other adjudicative officer.

(c) If an LP is disqualified by paragraph (a), no lawyer or LP in a firm with which that LP is associated may knowingly undertake or continue representation in the matter unless:

(1) the disqualified LP is timely screened from any participation in the matter substantially in accordance with the procedures set forth in Rule 1.10(c); and

RULE 1.13 ORGANIZATION AS CLIENT

(a) An LP employed or retained by an organization represents the organization acting through its duly authorized constituents.

(b) If an LP for an organization knows that an officer, employee or other person associated with the organization is engaged in action, intends to act or refuses to act in a matter related to the representation that is a violation of a legal obligation to the organization, or a violation of law which reasonably might be imputed to the organization, and that is likely to result in substantial injury to the organization, then the LP shall proceed as is reasonably necessary in the best interest of the organization. Unless the LP reasonably believes that it is not necessary in the best interest of the organization to do so, the LP shall refer the matter to higher authority in the organization, including, if warranted by the circumstances, referral to the highest authority that can act on behalf of the organization as determined by applicable law.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (d), if

(1) despite the LP’s efforts in accordance with paragraph (b) the highest authority that can act on behalf of the organization insists upon or fails to address in a timely and appropriate manner an action or a refusal to act, that is clearly a violation of law, and

(2) the LP reasonably believes that the violation is reasonably certain to result in substantial injury to the organization, then the LP may reveal information relating to the representation whether or not Rule 1.6 permits such disclosure, but only if and to the extent the LP reasonably believes necessary to prevent substantial injury to the organization.

(d) [Reserved]

(e) An LP who reasonably believes that he or she has been discharged because of the LP's actions taken pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c), or who withdraws under circumstances that require or permit the LP to take action under either of those paragraphs, shall proceed as the LP reasonably believes necessary to assure that the organization's highest authority is informed of the LP's discharge or withdrawal.

(f) In dealing with an organization's directors, officers, employees, members, shareholders or other constituents, an LP shall explain the identity of the client when the LP knows or reasonably should know that the organization's interests are adverse to those of the constituents with whom the LP is dealing.

(g) An LP representing an organization may also represent any of its directors, officers, employees, members, shareholders or other constituents, subject to the provisions of Rule 1.7. If the organization's consent to the dual representation is required by Rule 1.7, the consent may only be given by an appropriate official of the organization other than the individual who is to be represented, or by the shareholders.

RULE 1.14 CLIENT WITH DIMINISHED CAPACITY

(a) When a client's capacity to make adequately considered decisions in connection with a representation is diminished, whether because of minority, mental impairment or for some other reason, the LP shall, as far as reasonably possible, maintain a normal client-LP relationship with the client.

(b) When the LP reasonably believes that the client has diminished capacity, is at risk of substantial physical, financial or other harm unless action is taken and cannot adequately act in the client's own interest, the LP may take reasonably necessary protective action within the LP's scope of practice, and may consult with individuals or entities that have the ability to take action to protect the client and, in appropriate cases, seek the appointment of a guardian ad litem.

(c) Information relating to the representation of a client with diminished capacity is protected by Rule 1.6. When taking protective action pursuant to paragraph (b), the LP is impliedly authorized under Rule 1.6(a) to reveal information about the client, but only to the extent reasonably necessary to protect the client's interests.

RULE 1.15-1 SAFEKEEPING PROPERTY

(a) An LP shall hold property of clients or third persons that is in an LP's possession separate from the LP's own property. Funds, including advances for costs and expenses and escrow and other funds held for another, shall be kept in a separate "Lawyer Trust Account" maintained in the jurisdiction where the LP's office is situated. Each lawyer trust account shall be an interest bearing account in a financial institution selected by the LP or law firm in the exercise of reasonable care. Lawyer trust accounts shall conform to the rules in the jurisdictions in which the accounts are maintained. Other property shall be identified as such and appropriately safeguarded. Complete records of such account funds and other property shall be kept by the LP and shall be preserved for a period of five years after termination of the representation.

(b) An LP may deposit the LP's own funds in a lawyer trust account for the sole purposes of paying bank service charges or meeting minimum balance requirements on that account, but only in amounts necessary for those purposes.

(c) An LP shall deposit into a lawyer trust account legal fees and expenses that have been paid in advance, to be withdrawn by the LP only as fees are earned or expenses incurred, unless the fee is denominated as "earned on receipt," "nonrefundable" or similar terms and complies with Rule 1.5(c)(3).

(d) Upon receiving funds or other property in which a client or third person has an interest, an LP shall promptly notify the client or third person. Except as stated in this rule or otherwise permitted by law or by agreement with the client, an LP shall promptly deliver to the client or third person any funds or other property that the client or third person is entitled to receive and, upon request by the client or third person, shall promptly render a full accounting regarding such property.

(e) When in the course of representation an LP is in possession of property in which two or more persons (one of whom may be the LP) claim interests, the property shall be kept separate by the LP until the dispute is resolved. The LP shall promptly distribute all portions of the property as to which the interests are not in dispute.

RULE 1.15-2 IOLTA ACCOUNTS AND TRUST ACCOUNT OVERDRAFT NOTIFICATION

(a) A lawyer trust account for client funds that cannot earn interest in excess of the costs of generating such interest (“net interest”) shall be referred to as an IOLTA (Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts) account. IOLTA accounts shall be operated in accordance with this rule and with operating regulations and procedures as may be established by the Oregon State Bar with the approval of the Oregon Supreme Court.

(b) All client funds shall be deposited in the LP’s or firm’s IOLTA account unless a particular client’s funds can earn net interest. All interest earned by funds held in the IOLTA account shall be paid to the Oregon Law Foundation as provided in this rule.

(c) Client funds that can earn net interest shall be deposited in an interest bearing trust account for the client’s benefit and the net interest earned by funds in such an account shall be held in trust as property of the client in the same manner as is provided in paragraphs (a) through (d) of Rule 1.15-1 for the principal funds of the client. The interest bearing account shall be either:

- (1) a separate account for each particular client or client matter; or
- (2) a pooled lawyer trust account with subaccounting which will provide for computation of interest earned by each client's funds and the payment thereof, net of any bank service charges, to each client.

(d) In determining whether client funds can or cannot earn net interest, the LP or law firm shall consider the following factors:

- (1) the amount of the funds to be deposited;
- (2) the expected duration of the deposit, including the likelihood of delay in the matter for which the funds are held;
- (3) the rates of interest at financial institutions where the funds are to be deposited;
- (4) the cost of establishing and administering a separate interest bearing lawyer trust account for the client’s benefit, including service charges imposed by financial institutions, the cost of the LP’s or law firm’s services, and the cost of preparing any tax-related documents to report or account for income accruing to the client’s benefit;
- (5) the capability of financial institutions, the LP, lawyer or the law firm to calculate and pay income to individual clients; and
- (6) any other circumstances that affect the ability of the client’s funds to earn a net return for the client.

(e) The LP or firm shall review the IOLTA account at reasonable intervals to determine whether circumstances have changed that require further action with respect to the funds of a particular client.

(f) If an LP or firm determines that a particular client’s funds in an IOLTA account either did or can earn net interest, the LP shall transfer the funds into an account specified in paragraph (c) of this rule and request a refund for the lesser of either: any interest earned by the client’s funds and remitted to the Oregon Law Foundation; or the interest the client’s funds would have earned had those funds been placed in an interest bearing account for the benefit of the client at the same bank.

- (1) The request shall be made in writing to the Oregon Law Foundation within a reasonable period of time after the interest was remitted to the Foundation and shall be accompanied by written verification from the financial institution of the interest amount.
- (2) The Oregon Law Foundation will not refund more than the amount of interest it received from the client’s funds in question. The refund shall be remitted to the financial institution for transmittal to the LP or firm, after appropriate accounting and reporting.

(g) No earnings from a lawyer trust account shall be made available to an LP or the LP's firm.

(h) An LP or firm may maintain a lawyer trust account only at a financial institution that:

(1) is authorized by state or federal banking laws to transact banking business in the state where the account is maintained;

(2) is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or an analogous federal government agency;

(3) has entered into an agreement with the Oregon Law Foundation:

(i) to remit to the Oregon Law Foundation, at least quarterly, interest earned by the IOLTA account, computed in accordance with the institution's standard accounting practices, less reasonable service charges, if any; and

(ii) to deliver to the Oregon Law Foundation a report with each remittance showing the name of the LP or firm for whom the remittance is sent, the number of the IOLTA account as assigned by the financial institution, the average daily collected account balance or the balance on which the interest remitted was otherwise computed for each month for which the remittance is made, the rate of interest applied, the period for which the remittance is made, and the amount and description of any service charges deducted during the remittance period; and

(4) has entered into an overdraft notification agreement with the Oregon State Bar requiring the financial institution to report to the Oregon State Bar Disciplinary Counsel when any properly payable instrument is presented against such account containing insufficient funds, whether or not the instrument is honored.

(i) Overdraft notification agreements with financial institutions shall require that the following information be provided in writing to Disciplinary Counsel within ten banking days of the date the item was returned unpaid:

(1) the identity of the financial institution;

(2) the identity of the LP or firm;

(3) the account number; and

(4) either (i) the amount of the overdraft and the date it was created; or (ii) the amount of the returned instrument and the date it was returned.

(j) Agreements between financial institutions and the Oregon State Bar or the Oregon Law Foundation shall apply to all branches of the financial institution. Such agreements shall not be canceled except upon a thirty-day notice in writing to OSB Disciplinary Counsel in the case of a trust account overdraft notification agreement or to the Oregon Law Foundation in the case of an IOLTA agreement.

(k) Nothing in this rule shall preclude financial institutions which participate in any trust account overdraft notification program from charging LPs or firms for the reasonable costs incurred by the financial institutions in participating in such program.

(l) Every LP who receives notification from a financial institution that any instrument presented against his or her lawyer trust account was presented against insufficient funds, whether or not the instrument was honored, shall promptly notify Disciplinary Counsel in writing of the same information required by paragraph (i). The LP shall include a full explanation of the cause of the overdraft.

(m) For the purposes of paragraph (h)(3), "service charges" are limited to the institution's following customary check and deposit processing charges: monthly maintenance fees, per item check charges, items deposited charges and per deposit charges. Any other fees or transactions costs are not "service charges" for purposes of paragraph (h)(3) and must be paid by the lawyer or law firm.

(7) other good cause for withdrawal exists.

(c) An LP must comply with applicable law requiring notice to or permission of a tribunal when terminating a representation. When ordered to do so by a tribunal, an LP shall continue representation notwithstanding good cause for terminating the representation.

(d) Upon termination of representation, an LP shall take steps to the extent reasonably practicable to protect a client's interests, such as giving reasonable notice to the client, allowing time for employment of other representation, surrendering papers and property to which the client is entitled and refunding any advance payment of fee or expense that has not been earned or incurred. (d) If certified mail is not effective to give the client notice, the selling LP shall take such steps as may be reasonable under the circumstances to give the client actual notice of the proposed sale and the other information required in subsection (b).
