

Lunch and Learn Series: “The Sky Is Falling!” (Maybe) Insurance for Product Manufacturers

Register now at www.osbar.org/seminars and search for the individual program code

This series will be of interest to lawyers with product manufacturing clients.

Insurance for product manufacturers looks at how companies can be more proactive in managing their insurance programs. Top risks facing brands and manufacturers such as supply chain vulnerabilities, cyber risks, and employment practices liability will be discussed, as well as how insurance policies can be leveraged to mitigate these risks. The final part of the series will discuss what to do in the event a client needs to file a claim on a policy. For additional seminar details, please see the individual seminar schedules.
