Get more from this year's Northwest Bankruptcy Institute with additional breakout sessions. Three consumer and three business sessions will be offered, with topics ranging from family law considerations and mortgage mediation to intercreditor agreements and options for liquidating distressed businesses.

The general sessions feature guest presenters Professor Pamela Foohey, Indiana University Maurer School of Law, and Edward Dobbs, Parker Hudson Rainer & Dobbs, as well as the opportunity for an interactive session on secured transactions using your phone or other mobile device. The always popular hosted reception concludes Friday's schedule while the Judges Panel leads off Saturday's program after the Judges Breakfast.

Register by 3/23/18 and save $30.
