Power your way through your CLE requirements in one day with three seminars that offer, ethics, combined child and elder abuse reporting credit, and the new mental health and substance use credit.

Meet Michael Kahn, ReelTime CLE

Michael Kahn holds a J.D. from Dickinson School of Law and practiced with the New Jersey Attorney General's Office for six years. He left the practice of law in 1991 and was the Assistant Director of Career Services for Tulane University School of Law. Michael obtained his M. Ed. in Counseling from UNC-Greensboro in 1994 and then became a Licensed Professional Counselor in North Carolina. After relocating to Oregon in 2012 he served as an Adjunct Professor at Lewis & Clark Graduate School of Education & Counseling and continued his speaking career. Michael currently resides in Vancouver, BC, and presents training seminars and workshops on legal ethics, grief, wellness, diversity and inclusion, and other topics for attorneys and mental health professionals throughout the U.S. and abroad, including for the U.S. Army.

Here's what OSB members said about Michael Kahn's previous OSB seminars:

"The video clips were excellent. It really demonstrated the scenarios better than just talking in anecdotes and hypotheticals, or worse, reading the ORPC."

"The combined approach of a panel, written materials, and video is great. It keeps the attendees involved and interested."

Nobody Told Me There'd Be Days Like These: Stress, Pressure, and Ethical Decision-Making in the Practice of Law

Michael Kahn

CLE credits: 2 Ethics and 1 Mental Health and Substance Use

7:45 Registration

8:30 Nobody Told Me There'd Be Days Like These: Stress, Pressure, and Ethical Decision-Making in the Practice of Law

Most serious legal malpractice claims and state bar disciplinary actions are brought for clear breaches of obvious, well-defined ethical obligations. Using an original short film as a springboard for a roundtable discussion with Michael and local ethics experts, this engaging and interactive program provides a fresh and practical perspective on the fundamental question "why do good lawyers go bad?" Explore ethical decision-making and the numerous sources of stress that impact an attorney's mental health and the ability to competently practice law against a backdrop of Oregon's legal ethics rules.

1:15 Wrestling with Ethical Dilemmas*

How do lawyers cope with the demands of a law practice, family, and life in general while maintaining ethical obligations to clients? Using clips from the critically acclaimed 2011 film Win Win as a framework for a roundtable discussion with Michael and local ethics experts, examine how the constant stress of over-commitment significantly affects a lawyer's ability to serve clients ethically.

(One 15-minute break will be taken in the afternoon session.)
