CLE credits: 9 Practical Skills

Register now at www.osbar.org/seminars
(search for CTP19)

Whether you are new to trial practice or simply need a refresher on basic trial skills, this seminar features some of Oregon's most experienced practitioners and judges. From the art of drafting complaints and answers to the anatomy of a trial, attorneys and judges share their expertise. Get tips for taking and defending depositions. Review the discovery basics including discovery requests, subpoenas, and other general discovery provisions. Learn what a closing argument should include. Gain valuable insight on best and worst practices for documenting settlement agreements. In addition, a circuit court judge will share best practices for courtroom conduct, while a panel of judges will discuss how to protect your appeal.

Register by 9/23/19 and save $30.

Litigation Section members save $20 off registration rates.

SCHOLARSHIPS: The Litigation Section has a limited number of need-based registration scholarships for Litigation Section members admitted to the bar after Jan. 1, 2014, to attend the seminar. To apply, send your name, bar number, phone number, and a brief statement about your experience as an attorney and the need for a scholarship to: Luke Reese (lreese@ghrlawyers.com) by Sept. 9. Requests are considered in the order received. Recipients will be notified by Sept. 16. Please do not include any financial documentation or sensitive personal information with your scholarship request.
