This five-part webcast series will delve into mediation and arbitration considerations essential for your practice. Learn about drafting dispute arbitration and mediation clauses in business, commercial, real estate, construction and other agreements. Explore mediation and arbitration in construction-related disputes as well as disputes over real estate sales agreements. Examine using the mediation advocacy process to get better results for your clients and the ethical considerations in mediation.

- Special thanks to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Section for subsidizing the registration rates to allow its members to attend an individual seminar for $5 and $25 for the series.
