Noon Five Ways to Ethically Use Chat GPT Safely in the Practice of Law

Traditional legal ethics educators have been alarming lawyers about generative AI (GAI). In a departure from using scare tactics, Stuart's approach will demonstrate five ways lawyers can responsibly and ethically use GAI in practice.

- How GAI helps lawyers communicate effectively with clients (Rule 1.4)
- Developing case strategy safely with GAI (Competence, Rule 1.1)
- Avoiding the confidentiality issues inherent in GAI (Rule 1.6, and 1.6, Comment [4])
- Addressing the never-ending issue of hallucinations (Diligence, Rule 1.3)
- How GAI can assist in conflict checks (Rule 1.7)

Noon Taylor Swift is a Genius—Even About Legal Ethics

Taylor Swift is a music genius, and she's also made some pretty smart moves in the courtroom. Take a tour of these moves with Stuart and discover which legal ethics rules emerged from her interaction with the legal system. You don't have to be a Swiftie to understand this program but you might end up one!

- Being awesome at what you do and competence (Rule 1.1)
- Copyright cases and frivolous claims (Rule 3.1)
- Forgoing an FTX deal by being diligent (Rule 1.3)
- The Ticketmaster debacle and the idea of pro bono work (Rule 6.1)
- Improper behavior and Rule 8.4(g)

Noon Eight Reasons Movie and TV Lawyers Would be Disciplined

Lawyers in movies and television are constantly violating legal ethics rules. While the general public doesn't realize this, shouldn't those in the legal profession make sure these violations aren't being repeated? Using media clips and his own commentary, Stuart will dissect both obvious and subtle ethics violations committed in the name of filling movie theater seats and garnering TV viewership.

- Ex parte conversations with judges and Rule 3.5
- How fictional lawyers are constantly disrupting a tribunal (Rule 3.4(d))
- Shouldn't other lawyers who see what's happening report their colleagues? (Rule 8.3(a))

Meet Stuart Teicher

Stuart I. Teicher, Esq. is a professional legal educator who focuses on ethics law and writing instruction. A practicing lawyer for 30 years, his career is now dedicated to helping fellow lawyers survive the practice of law and thrive in the profession. Mr. Teicher teaches seminars, provides in-house training to law firms and legal departments, provides CLE instruction at law firm client events, and gives keynote speeches at conventions and association meetings. Mr. Teicher was appointed by the New Jersey Supreme Court to the New Jersey District Ethics Committee, which investigates and prosecutes grievances filed against attorneys. He is also an adjunct professor at Georgetown Law and teaches professional responsibility.

Here's what OSB licensees said about Stuart Teicher's previous OSB seminars:

"This is the only ethics class I've attended where I think I will remember the material."

"Mr. Teicher is an amazing presenter! He packed a lot of substance into the presentation while making it engaging and entertaining."

"Truly an excellent introduction into ethics and AI and the internet!"

"Stuart Teicher's enthusiasm and teaching style was great. Very glad I set aside the day for these courses."

"Very engaging speaker. Did a wonderful job of demonstrating [the] evolution of ethics and how the scope is broadening for us all in our responsibilities."
